TO ANNOUNCE CAUSE OF OBNOXIOUS GASES AT LOCAL SCHOOL

Samples of Gas-laden Air to Be Subjected to Analysis
By Department of Public Health—Observations of Chief Chemist Weston

Special to The Sun.—
BOSTON, Jan. 31. Within a few days the expert analysts of the state department of public health expect to be able to announce definitely the cause of the gas which has become an annoyance at the Cabot street school in Lowell, and in and about various buildings in that vicinity.

Samples of the gas-laden air have been taken by Arthur R. G. Booth, of Lowell, one of the experts in the department, and are to be subjected to analysis in a machine owned by the department which will disclose the various factors entering into the samples examined. The machine, incidentally, is the only one of its kind in the eastern section of the country.

Four samples have been taken by Mr. Booth, one was taken from a street manhole near the school, another from the roof pipes within the school building; a third from the A. & P. store a short distance away from the school, where the odor has been most objectionable, and a fourth from the purifying room at the gas works.

By comparing the first three samples with the fourth, it will be possible for the experts to determine whether the odors arise from illuminating gas, or from the gases

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNCIL TOMORROW EVENING

No Action Expected on Mayor's Nominations—Meeting Called for Purpose of Drawing Another Venire
of Jurors—City Hall News

No action upon nominations by the mayor is expected at the special city council meeting of the current week to be held tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock. The meeting is called for the purpose of drawing another venire of jurors and Pres. James J. Gallagher will make an address. There is a considerable list of routine matters waiting for action and it is the president's belief they should be cleared up and thus shorten the regular meeting on February 5.

Prior to the council meeting there will be meetings of the finance committee and the committee on public property. The latter will discuss the proposition to reconstruct the old Durkee house along lines suggested by four associated architects, who have drawn up plans and estimates of cost.

Debt and Interest Charges

City debt payments this year will amount to $1,029,420, against $500,770 in 1923, according to a schedule prepared by City Auditor Daniel E. Martin. Continued to Page Eight

NEW STREET RAILWAY WAITING ROOM

A larger and more conveniently located waiting room for street railway passengers will be opened in the near future in the store formerly occupied by the Royal Bakers in the Grosvenor block, and which is now being remodelled for its new occupants.

A chain candy store firm owned by a Mr. McWright of Providence, R. I., will occupy this store as soon as it is remodelled and an agreement has already been entered into between Mr. McWright and the street railway company for the use of the store as a waiting room.

The store is centrally located and when completed will have entrances on Merrimack street and on the alley leading from the rear of the store to Fiske street. This latter feature will be of especial benefit to patrons of the street railway company who live in the Centralville district as it will afford direct exit to Fiske street from where the Centralville cars are dispatched.

At the present time a temporary waiting room is located in Gallagher's candy store, which has several doors above the new waiting room.

It is believed that the new waiting room will be ready for occupancy within a few months. With its completion street railway officials believe the waiting room problem in this city, which has been a subject of controversy for many months will be permanently solved.

NO SUCH THING AS WINTER CARNIVAL WITHOUT SNOW

All that is needed to make a success of the second annual winter carnival here is snow, and plenty of it, before next Wednesday. Wednesday and Thursday of next week have been set as the tentative carnival dates and unless we have a good snowfall before that time there is not the slightest prospect of the carnival then taking place. Postponements to tentative dates will follow indefinitely until Mother Earth is given an enormous mantle.

The discussion last night of the joint carnival committee, at which plans for carnival sports events were made, was featured by weather conditions that tended to swerve one's mind more to baseball than hockey, it was truly "Babe" Ruth weather.

brought by the former for an accounting and praying that the defendant be ordered to discontinue, upon payment of such sums as may be decided are due the plaintiff.

In this matter there is also involved a civil suit brought by Mr. Genaris who would recover about $6000 on a series of promissory notes running from 1912. The master's report in this case is to be made to the superior court.

Mr. Ross of Boston is attorney for Mr.
Sakelarios while Qua, Howard & Rogers,

SCHOOL BOARD TO DENY REQUEST FOR SALARY INCREASES

Growing Belief That Petitioners Will Be Given Leave to Withdraw—Sub-Committee Will Report to Full Board Tomorrow Evening

The rumor continues to gain momentum in an effort to substantiate the rumor that the school committee will turn down all requests for salary and wage increases presented to it by teachers and janitors this year. Economic conditions and the state of city finances are freely being discussed and while no member of the board has publicly stated his stand on the matter, it is a growing belief that when it comes to a show-down the petitioners will be given leave to withdraw.

The main reason being advanced in an effort to substantiate the rumor that no increases will be granted is that present conditions, coupled with the size of the school department's appropriation based upon salaries as established at present, will not justify any further upward revisions at the present time.

Although the sub-committee of the school board appointed to submit recommendations in relation to salary schedules for teachers and janitors met in a three-hour conference yesterday afternoon, the question at issue was no nearer solution than before the meeting was held.

In other words, the problem is one of great detail and has so many phases that the committee hardly probed beneath the surface. Another meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock and before it adjourns some sort of a report must be approved for presentation to the full committee tomorrow evening.

No member of the sub-committee, composed of Mrs. Alice F. D. Pearson, James H. Riley and Franklin H. Johnson, cared to comment today on what might constitute the report. "I do not care to anticipate what the committee will do," was the statement made by each in reply to queries.

LODGE ADMITS DENBY DID WRONG BUT OPPOSES MOVE TO OUST HIM

Resignation to Walsh Annulment Resolution Will

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. A move to attach the Robinson resolution calling for the resignation of Secretary Denby to the Walsh oil lease annulment measure was taken today, but immediately after the senate convened, the amendment was sponsored by Senator Trans-mont, democrat, Florida.

Immediate opposition was voiced by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, who declared his belief that the day before yesterday's statement which the secretary of the public made, the day before yesterday, "There is no evidence yet in the hearings or elsewhere, however, which could justify very strongly" such a demonstration or shows in any way that Secretary Denby was wrong. There is no proof that he was guilty of any thing more than very mistaken judgment of the president in the ex-

The second of four infantile paralysis clinics conducted under the direction of the Lowell board of health at the rooms of the Lowell third, at Fiske street, was held yesterday. Seventeen children were examined by a representative of the Infantile Paralysis commission.

LOWELL'S LATEST CLUB IS THE PAINT AND POT

The Paint and Pot club had its inception last night at the home of Merton Rodger on Florence avenue when several young men of Lowell who are interested in art assembled there to organize as an association for the production and study of fine arts. The charter members include students and graduates of The Students Art League of New York, New School of Design, Boston Normal Art School, Boston Museum of Fine Arts. They are: Francis J. Durant, William C. Plante, Gerald B. McLean, Joseph Perault, John J. Trumbull, William P. Lester, Merton L. Rodger, George H. Keefe, Thomas J. Salmon, William Taylor, Everett Taylor and Howard Lewis.

Mr. Durant was elected temporary chairman, and called the meeting to order. The business of the meeting was to choose a name for the organization and to draw up a constitution.

It was unanimously voted to volunteer the services of the club to the Winter Carnival committee to design posters or in any other way that they may be of service. Their offer was accepted by Mr. Wood for the carnival committee.

To Announce Cause of Gases at Local School

thrown off from the trunk sewer which passes close to the corner of the school building.

Arthur D. Weston, chief chemist of the department, who visited Lowell and looked over the situation, is of the opinion that two distinct kinds of gas are involved, and that two separate causes must be found. This opinion he bases upon his observation that the gases smelled in the Cabot school are not the same as those smelled at manholes in the street. The former, he is certain, is illuminating gas; the others, he is equally convinced, are the gases which naturally arise from a sewer, but which in this instance may be stronger than usual because of the presence of waste from the gas works.

Should his deductions be proven correct, it will be necessary to find a gas leak somewhere in the immediate vicinity of the Cabot school. That will remedy the trouble so far as that particular smell is concerned.

For the other, he suggests three possible remedies. One is the construction of another sewer, to carry waste from the gas works direct to the river, an expensive undertaking. Another is treatment of the sewage with chlorine, or some other disinfectant, which will remove its offensive qualities. The third is to "plug up" the places through which the gases now escape from the sewer.

In connection with the last remedy, he points out that in the vicinity of the store, above referred to, there are several old pipes which formerly used for entering the trunk sewer, but which are no longer in use. They have been permitted to remain, however, and to all intents and purposes serve merely as a vent for the sewer. Mr. Weston suggests that the ground about the end of these pipes should be filled in solidly, or the pipes removed entirely and their entrance to the sewer plugged. ROYT.

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are a mild, but sure laxative, and work effect on the liver in almost instantaneous. These little olive-coated tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't irritate the teeth like calomel, or cause indigestion. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums, so do it right up. It is best not to take calomel. EUGENE A. FITZGERALD
President of the Alumni Association

When the student body numbered about 40 and when the brothers taught, "The school then and the school today are entirely different institutions," he said. "When I attended St. Patrick's we had four, but now we have 100. The school has grown, but the spirit is the same. We had our solid years of English, mathematics, history, in short, we had a real school."

My class started with 60 boys, but only six finished the course and were graduated. They were Thomas P. Keyes, Joseph H. Conklin, John P. Saunders, Thomas H. Sullivan, who have passed away, Dr. John H. O'Connor of Hyde Park and my self.

Counselor Eugene A. Fitzgerald of the class of 1914, as toastmaster of the occasion, on his charge of the meeting following Mr. Monahan's enlightening talk. After extending his heartfelt thanks to the committee for the enjoyable time provided he touched upon the traditions of the school and its contributions to church and society. "It is a wonderful thing to think," he added, "that this school has given about 25 young men to God's altar. What number of greater success can any school hope for?"

The toastmaster, in his choice terms, proceeded to introduce Rev. Bro. Clarence C.F.N., the popular superior of the present-day St. Patrick's, who spoke, in part, as follows: "I am here to give verbal expression to what you must already know, that you are welcome, very welcome back to St. Patrick's. We are proud and honored to have our reverend superior here to preside at our reunion, his able assistants as well as some of the clergy who are members of our alumni, our reverend supervisor of schools who never fails to be on hand to deliver a message which is always inspiring to the religious who claim St. Patrick's as their alma mater; our honored guests among whom we are fortunate in having a national figure, the most famous athlete in the world of sport, the king of our national pastime, the idol of every red-blooded man and boy in this great land of ours. He is here tonight because he is one of ours, just as you are, and we are naturally proud of him, and he is glad to be here, because he, like you, is the product of a Naverian brothers' school."

Pastor of St. Patrick's

and although not the palatial place he would like to have it, it would not mean the same to the alumni if its floor were marble and its walls gilded. Dr. McGarry attributed the progress of the school to the unselfish work of the Christian brothers and appealed to the gathering to keep on loving it and to be interested in all its undertakings. "The boys now attending the school expect the association to be interested in it. You should give the boys a good time at least once a year. I'd pay for myself if I thought I could feel them into thinking you did. They appreciate something like this, and my recommendation, therefore, is of a practical nature that you do something for the boys and drive for yourselves a measure of consolation."

Big Reception to "Babe" Ruth

To the accompaniment of vociferous applause, "Babe" Ruth was next introduced. From all appearances, the home-run artist is a champion sociable as well as a diamond celebrity. In his characteristic vein, he said he had been present at 17 functions during the past week and was pretty well tired out.

He spoke of his associations with Bro. (Clarence) Herman, Peter and Aquinas at St. Mary's Industrial school in Baltimore, which he attended 22 years ago and where he learned the fundamentals of the national pastime of Bro. Herman, now stationed at St. Patrick's here. "I regret to say," said the Babe, "that I have succeeded in becoming a better player than Bro. Herman. I remember distinctly when Bro. Herman and I batted balls around the lot at St. Mary's. By the way, I never understood why they called that an industrial school. But anyway, 16 or 17 years ago, we played together. He showed me a lot of stuff, not only in baseball, but in football, too. Oh, yes, we used to play the rugby game. On a rainy night, too, I recall being knocked 'cold' in a scrimmage once."

Ruth then recounted several experiences at St. Mary's. He went there 23 years ago next month he said. Though it was hard at first, but he learned its value in later years. "I had my own ideas when I was a kid," he added, "I never smoked a cigarette until I was 19 years old. I went direct from school to baseball, joining the Baltimore club with Ben Egan and Ernie Shore. Our first jump was to North Carolina and I was at a loss to know how we would sleep on the train. I had never heard of a sleeping car."

The Babe, in concluding, gave some good advice, asking the men to encourage baseball among the younger talent and to give them an example of clean living. He was accorded a wonderful demonstration as he left the hall to keep another engagement with the Knights of Columbus. Outside the building his progress to his waiting automobile was hindered with groups of kids anxious to get just one look at the man they had read so much about. As his machine sped away, youthful throats shouted an evensong, "Good-bye, Babe," and he was gone.

1888 when the student body numbered about 40 and when the brothers taught, "The school then and the school today are entirely different institutions," he said. "When I attended St. Patrick's we had four, but now we have 100. The school has grown, but the spirit is the same. We had our solid years of English, mathematics, history, in short, we had a real school."

My class started with 60 boys, but only six finished the course and were graduated. They were Thomas P. Keyes, Joseph H. Conklin, John P. Saunders, Thomas H. Sullivan, who have passed away, Dr. John H. O'Connor of Hyde Park and my self.

Counselor Eugene A. Fitzgerald of the class of 1914, as toastmaster of the occasion, on his charge of the meeting following Mr. Monahan's enlightening talk. After extending his heartfelt thanks to the committee for the enjoyable time provided he touched upon the traditions of the school and its contributions to church and society. "It is a wonderful thing to think," he added, "that this school has given about 25 young men to God's altar. What number of greater success can any school hope for?"

The toastmaster, in his choice terms, proceeded to introduce Rev. Bro. Clarence C.F.N., the popular superior of the present-day St. Patrick's, who spoke, in part, as follows: "I am here to give verbal expression to what you must already know, that you are welcome, very welcome back to St. Patrick's. We are proud and honored to have our reverend superior here to preside at our reunion, his able assistants as well as some of the clergy who are members of our alumni, our reverend supervisor of schools who never fails to be on hand to deliver a message which is always inspiring to the religious who claim St. Patrick's as their alma mater; our honored guests among whom we are fortunate in having a national figure, the most famous athlete in the world of sport, the king of our national pastime, the idol of every red-blooded man and boy in this great land of ours. He is here tonight because he is one of ours, just as you are, and we are naturally proud of him, and he is glad to be here, because he, like you, is the product of a Naverian brothers' school."

Pastor of St. Patrick's

The next speaker was Rev. Dr. McGarry, who expressed his gratification at the numbers present to show their loyalty to the old school that gave them, he said, their first start in education.

Building Strength After the Grip

Mrs. Willis Found Exactly the Remedy Needed to Regain Health and Energy

"An attack of the grip left me a miserable being, ran down and withered vitality," says Mrs. Laura E. Willis, of No. 57 Lincoln street, Worcester, Mass. "My nerves were shattered. My blood was thin and poor and I was dizzy and had headaches that nearly drove me wild. I was so nervous that I got no restful sleep. My stomach was sour and I had no pain so that it seemed that I could not breathe."

Through a friend in Amherst who had used them with benefit I was induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they were exactly what I needed for they built up my blood. I began to gain strength and energy before I had finished the second box. My circulation was better and I suffered less from dizziness and headaches. My nerves became quieter and sleep refreshed me. The stomach trouble no longer bothered me. I shall always use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a spring tonic or when ever I need bracing up and I am glad to recommend them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful in anemia, or thin blood, nervousness and its more aggravated forms or sick headache, neuritis, salt-water rheumatism. They give new strength and vigor and if you need this tonic you should get a sixty-cent box from your nearest druggist today and begin the treatment.

APPROVES CUT IN INCOME TAX

Sec. Mellon Favors Plan to Make Reductions Effective
on 1923 Payments

Believes Step Would Entail
No Difficulties on the
Treasury

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Secretary Mellon regards as practical and feasible the plan of republican members of the house ways and means committee to make the proposed income tax reductions effective on the 1923 payments which taxpayers will remit to the government beginning March 15. He believes the step would entail no difficulties on the treasury.

Further revision of the income tax rates was taken today by the republican members of the house ways and means committee after their break with the democrats during yesterday's consideration of the new revenue bill. A reduction in the 1924 taxes, which are payable this year, was voted yesterday by the majority members and they decided to work out an income rate schedule of their own, according to Chairman Green, because of the refusal of the democrats to accept their offer to compromise and draft a non-partisan plan. The amount of the reduction may be as high as 25 per cent. Representative Garner, Texas, ranking democrat of the committee insisted, however, that the republicans had offered no concert compromise and therefore none had been refused.

Interpellating the government in connection with the train wreck, in which three prominent opposition leaders escaped injury, although the locomotive of their train was damaged, the foes of Premier Kiyoura and his newly installed cabinet demanded that the premier reply personally.

Kiyoura, however, refused to rise. Great disorder immediately ensued, and which Kiyoura Komatsu, minister of communications and a member of the house of peers, attempted to reply to the interpellations. In the confusion, an agitator, not a member of the diet, rushed to the platform and thrust Komatsu aside. A riot followed. The legislators used water containers as missiles and several engaged in fist combats.

Hostilities continued until the speaker of the house hastily declared a temporary adjournment, which was followed by dissolution of the diet.

Six rallies were held in Tokyo by the opposition today. The police, strengthened by the addition of an extra force, were maintaining a close watch over proceedings.

Viscount Takahashi, K. Inokubi, leader of the former nationalist party, and Y. Usaki, former minister of justice, were the leaders on the train. They were en route from an opposition party rally at Osaka to Tokyo for resumption of the sessions of the diet. They carried undisturbed, although the locomotive of their train was damaged by boys and stones piled on the tracks.

and three pieces of artillery. Eighty officers were among the prisoners.

In capturing Esperanza, the federals took an important rebel code which resulted in the interception of wireless messages between the rebel generals de la Huerta and Estrada and rebel agents in the United States. The nature of the messages was not made public.

The federals also took the pay car of General Maycotte's troops, which contained nearly 200,000 pesos. Federal losses, according to official reports, total only 22 dead, including eleven officers and 255 wounded. Efficient use of artillery was responsible for the comparatively small number of casualties, General Martinez's report said.

General Martinez, accompanied by Secretary of War Serrano, arrived here last night and left immediately for El Paso, military headquarters of President Obregon, for a conference with cabinet members the chief executive has set for today.

WHY THEY CALL IT "TEAPOT DOME" ALSO A VIEW OF THAT FIELD

Here's why they call the now famous Wyoming oil field "Teapot Dome." Picture at the right shows the peculiar rock formation brought about by erosion, from which the district draws its name. Above is a panoramic view of the oil field which is now in the limelight as a result of the senate's probe of the conditions under which this portion of the naval oil reserve was leased to private interests. The Teapot Dome field is in central Wyoming, mainly in Natrona county.

Here's the Teapot Dome Teapot.

Pres. Coolidge Confers With Senate Leaders on Oil Leases

president desired to discuss with the two democratic leaders the whole question of the investigation as made by the senate committee and as contemplated by the legislative branch of the government.

The conference was the first the president has had with democratic senators since the oil lease inquiry assumed its present major proportions.

Strawn at White House

Silas H. Strawn, one of the special counsel selected by the president to conduct the government's investigation, arrived at the White House almost simultaneously with the two senators but did not go into conference with the president with them.

Arrangements were made meantime for a conference between Mr. Strawn and J. Crawford Briggs, of Indianapolis, N. C., an attorney said to have been intimately acquainted with the oil land policies carried out by Secretary Daniels, under the Wilson administration.

Before the house naval committee, which is inquiring into the disposition of royalty oils under the Debs and Sinclair leases, a debate developed over the Debs leases with republican members declaring that the door for the full contracts originally was opened by the former democratic navy secretary.

The senate oil committee held no session, but three physicians selected by it went to the apartment where former Secretary Fall is confined to determine whether he is too ill to testify when the committee hearings are resumed tomorrow.

Rumors of Cabinet Changes

In the midst of these developments, rumors of cabinet changes involving the retirement of Secretary Denby and Attorney General Daugherty, continued to fly thick and fast, but Secretary Denby denied a story that the two cabinet members had placed their resignations before the president.

It was indicated that all features of the problem were talked over with the president by Senators Robinson and Walsh, but that most of the conference was taken up with the question of the special counsel who will prosecute the annulment suits.

Mr. Coolidge has selected Thomas W. Gregory of Texas, a former democratic attorney general, to act with Mr. Strawn and he is on his way to Washington. There were evidence yesterday, however, that something might have gone amiss in the plans and it was even more apparent today that the makeup of the government's counsel was a subject still occupying a large share of attention in administration circles.

It was to talk over that subject that Chairman Lenoir of the oil committee and Senator Curtis of Kansas, the republican whip, made an early morning trip to the White House. Later Senator Lodge, the republican leader, also called on the president before his conference with the democratic leaders.

All the senators declined to say what trend the discussion had taken or whether the qualifications of either of the two attorneys selected by Mr. Coolidge had been questioned.

Judge Bliss, who is a democrat, would not comment on the question of whether he might become associated with the government's special counsel.

This Delay Vote

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—With the Walsh resolution directing the president to move for annulment of the naval oil leases still tangled in the net of senate discussion, three physicians examined former Secretary Fall to determine independently for the investigating committee whether his condition will permit him to appear soon for questioning.

Silas H. Strawn, one of the lawyers selected by President Coolidge to represent the government in court action growing out of the inquiry, continued meanwhile his examination of evidence developed in the investigation while awaiting the arrival of former Attorney General Gregory, who will act with him, and the house naval committee proceeded with its inquiry into the disposal of Royalty Oil.

House Committee Calls Denby

The house committee yesterday heard Rear Admiral Lathrop, Ridge advocate general of the navy, and has invited Secretary Denby, who remains under fire in the senate due to his connection with the oil leasing contracts, to present his views.

The house committee held no session today, despite the request yesterday of E. L. Doherty, leader of the California reserve base for a further hearing, but it will meet tomorrow to receive the report of Fall's condition from its physician, Thomas A. Clayton, Daniel V. Sargent, Jr., and Sterling Ruffin, and is expected to receive the oil contract bill.

Politics and personal differences together with efforts to modify the language of the Walsh resolution by three amendments, helped to force it over for further discussion today.

Special Meeting of Council Tomorrow Evening

Recent payments on outstanding loans as of January 1 will amount to $247,713.92, or a reduction of approximately 100,000 from last year. This figure does not include discount on temporary money for 1924 or interest on any bond issues floated prior to July 1 of the current year.

Budget Again Taken Up

The budget and tariff commission met this afternoon to continue its 1924 budget deliberations. The committee

sion hopes to get all other department estimates out of the way before the school department estimates are submitted.

National Music Week

Mayor John J. Donovan is in receipt of a letter from the National Bureau for the Advancement of Music, asking his co-operation in the observance of National Music Week from May 1 to 10. The letter is from C. M. Tremaine, secretary of the bureau and suggests the desirability of taking some action toward the formation of a music week committee for the proper observance of the event in Lowell.

National Music Week is the outgrowth of many local music weeks all over the country and its purpose is to spread a love for music and appreciation of its growing importance in the life of the individual and the community. Secretary Tremaine already has been in communication with Albert Edmund Brown, one of the leaders in local music circles, and Sgt. John W. Kernan, of the park department.

Looking Ahead to 1932

A communication from the Sulgrave Institution of New York to Mayor Donovan today solicits his co-operation in a national celebration of the 20th anniversary of the birth of George Washington, which falls on Feb. 22, 1932. The mayor is asked to name a committee to care for local details and work with the national organization now in the process of formation.

spectful hearing for "a member of the president's cabinet."

While the tumult proceeded Lewis again took the floor and shouted at the top of his voice to make himself heard:

"The honor of your organization is at stake. You are on trial before the country. Exercise self-restraint that our organization be not publicly shamed."

He then requested those unwilling to hear the speaker to leave the hall. After prolonged handclapping Secretary Davis began to speak.

Secretary Davis drew applause when he recommended a long term wage contract of five years, declaring such a wage agreement would bring about a long period of harmony in the coal industry and would eliminate "spot, or short coal gamblers—the worst menace of the industry."

Secretary Davis, in his speech, pleaded for a way in which to make the coal mines of the country safer for the miners.

CHILD SERIOUSLY

INJURED BY AUTO

Eight-year old Sparky Blaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Blaney of Westford, was seriously injured late yesterday afternoon when struck by an automobile operated by Frank Wright, Jr., of Westford. He was removed to the Lowell General Hospital where it was found he was suffering from a fractured skull. His name was placed on the dangerous list last night and while his condition is still considered serious it is reported today that he is considerably improved.

EARLY MORNING HOOF FIRE

Sparks from a chimney set fire to a roof at 20 Appleton street at 5:30 this morning. Apparently resulting to a fire, a alarm was sounded, the blaze before any considerable damage had been done.

Mrs. Freese is serving out her husband's unexpired term. He was killed in an automobile accident.

BUNKER CONVICTED OF MURDER

DETROIT, Jan. 31.—Jesse Bunker, alias Murphy, was convicted yesterday of the murder of Frederick Webster, who was fatally wounded last August in a revolver fight between detectives and bandits they surprised in an attempt to hold up a blind pig. The jury was out 28 minutes. He was sentenced to a life term in prison. Bunker, in a statement to the court following his conviction admitted participation in the hold up, but denied that he fired the fatal shot.

ACCEPTS CALL TO FIRST UNIVERSALIST CHURCH

Rev. Harold W. Haynes of Beverly today accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Universalist church of Lowell and will come to the city about March 1st. At present he is pastor of the First Universalist church of the North Shore city and is known as a forceful leader and a man of splendid organization ability.

The board of assessors of the local church first made overtures to Rev. Mr. Haynes about a month ago and a call was definitely sent to him three weeks ago, but his acceptance was not received until today.

HAMILTON CO. PASSES DIVIDEND

Optimism still reigns on Jackson street, though dividends are nil. Hamilton Manufacturing company has omitted its regular dividend due to be declared at this time. The Lowell textile corporation has been paying one per cent. quarterly.

The pausing of the January payment, however, made regularly to large numbers of stockholders residing in many sections of New England, will cause no surprise. For months past, the Jackson street textile mills have been operating under most unfavorable conditions, with running schedules limited to three days.

Hopeful though the directors of the venerable Lowell industrial concern are that present conditions will soon change for the better, it was decided to withhold dividend payments for the time being.

The following notice has been issued to all stockholders this week:

"Owing to the present disturbed and unfavorable conditions of the markets, both for our raw materials and for our products (which conditions, it is hoped, are temporary), the directors of the Hamilton Manufacturing company have thought it the proper conservative course to defer action on the dividend."

There is $2,600,000 of Hamilton stock outstanding.

Small lot sales of Hamilton securities have sold earlier in the winter as high as 50 and 75. Today the stock is quoted on the Boston unlisted securities market as "in bid," is asked. A few sales were reported on the mill stock brokers' boards Monday at an average of 15.

'First Aid' For Sick Children

THE experienced mother is not alarmed when a child becomes sick. She knows that most of the ailments of childhood are trifling. If it seems serious she calls a doctor, but whether or not she calls him she gives, first of all, a good laxative medicine. The doctor would advise that anyway. It is his "first aid." Such experienced mothers as Mrs. Everett E. Hunt of Belzoni, Okla., who has three children and never any sickness, and Mrs. F. B. Kuklenski of Prosser, Wash., always give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at the first indication of sickness. Such timely doses have saved them much worry.

The Meaning of "Good"

All doctors agree that a thorough cleaning out of the bowels is of first importance for it removes dangerous intestinal poisons. They will also advise a "good laxative," and by "good" they mean one that is effective and yet harmless. They know that there are poisons that never should be given to children - calomel, which is mercury and loosens the teeth; phenolphthalein, a coal-tar drug that causes skin trouble; salts, which concentrate the blood and dry up the salivary glands. They consider Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin safe for all ages as they know it is a simple vegetable compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and agreeable aromatics. The formula is on the package.

Give Laxative for Colds

Adults should have at least one movement of the bowels every 24 hours, and children two or three. Failure to have it means constipation, then headache, biliousness, drowsiness, lack of appetite. Give a dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at bedtime, and there will be health and good feeling by morning. A dose costs less than a cent, and a bottle can be had at any drug store. Colds and constipation come together, so if you notice coughing or sneezing stop it at once with Syrup Pepsin.

CHRONIC NEPHRITIS

Chronic nephritis is a disease of the kidneys when the process is in the stage of sclerosis, atrophy and contraction, whatever may have been the primal cause.

Two important reasons for the prevalence of chronic nephritis (Bright's disease) which takes a death toll of about 70,000 each year in the United States are:

First, the disease is caused from some bacterial infection from an earlier attack of some disease.

Second, it is in many cases to a high use of protein foods (meats) and animal products. Arterio sclerosis, or hardening of the smaller arteries and general contraction of the kidneys, is another cause.

When infection is clear the cause the primal agents were mainly tonsillitis and scarlet fever. Even though the attack may be light, the most careful and skillful treatment is necessary.

to ward off any future attacks on the kidneys from the poison of these diseases.

Abuse of protein requirements in probably 75 per cent. of people in the temperate latitudes is a strong cause of indolent chronic nephritis. Europeans and people of the United States and Canada consume far larger amounts of protein in the form of meat or animal food, than do the races of tropical countries. Tropical people are far more temperate in their eating, and rarely, if ever, suffer death from chronic nephritis.

The common habit of over eating, throwing far too much work on the kidneys, and excessive work of this sort weakens and clouds the mind, to the danger point of disease and protracted condition. The sensible diet is a strong weapon with which to fight off chronic nephritis. Vary your diet with vegetables and fruits and vegetable oils whenever possible. They act as a strong counter-balance to the protein foods.

Do not on any account, if you believe yourself afflicted with chronic nephritis, dose yourself with some medicine that claims to be a kidney cure. Such treatment is usually of no value and often causes real harm to the over-worked kidneys.

What To Do For Frail, Feeble, Old People

"When age begins to thin the blood all the vital functions slow down and impair the health. In such cases," says Dr. Emil Sauer, "I know of nothing better than true organic iron."

"What old people need most, is something to put back the iron in their blood. Without iron, nothing you eat does you any good. Your food merely passes through you. It is the iron in your blood that enables you to get the nourishment out of your food."

"For old people who feel their former strength slipping away, I always prescribe Nuxated Iron, which contains iron like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples and like the iron in your blood. It is a true tonic, blood and body builder, and in my own practice, I have had aged people tell me that they felt years younger often in only a few weeks' time."

Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Emil Sauer, may be had at any good drug store. Try taking two tablets three times a day for two weeks, and if you do not feel years younger with new strength, energy and health, your own druggist will gladly refund your money.

"DEAR SWEETUM" LETTERS READ

Love Notes Introduced at
Breach of Promise Suit
Against Asa G. Candler

Counsel Declares Candler
Wrote Three Letters a
Day to Mrs. DeBouchel

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 31.—A stack of letters to "Dear Sweetum" were neatly arranged on a counsel table in the United States district court here and were expected to be read during the second day of the trial of the $500,000 breach of promise suit against Asa G. Candler, senior, soft drink magnate of Atlanta, by Mrs. Theodora DeBouchel of New Orleans.

Yesterday thirteen epistles were read, and plaintiff's counsel stated Mr. Candler wrote to Mrs. DeBouchel as many as three letters a day.

"And I am to be the master of your heart, my dear, I never imagined that I would ever master the heart of a queen. I must begin to expand so that I can steadily hold the sceptre of my kingdom and prepare to rule with king's justice," read Mrs. DeBouchel's counsel yesterday from a letter he said had been penned by Mr. Candler to Mrs.

DeBouchel who at the time was residing in Reno, Nev.

The dates were early in the spring of 1922. Until then, after their first meeting in November, 1921, at a Confederate veterans' union here, Mr. Candler corresponded with Mrs. DeBouchel, so a letter stated, "for culture and pastime which, being done, I found myself admiring you."

Later another letter stated that Mr. Candler had investigated the "manner of woman" Mrs. DeBouchel was, and, after "from every available source I learned of your excellency, good breeding and personal charm, unreservedly loved you."

Proposal of Marriage
Then came the proposal which Mrs. DeBouchel, according to a letter read as from Mr. Candler, accepted after she had obtained a divorce from Adolphe Roquet in Reno in September, 1921.

"The cards are being engraved and the envelopes are being addressed in my office," one letter read. "I am having your marriage ring made to fit my little finger. Is that right? Send me a string measure in your next letter." The same epistle stated Mr. Candler had three conferences to hold, "then I am ready to depart for Eden, as it was after Adam's nap and rib experience, I am doing my best to get you, while you are my sweetheart. After that chapter is ended, I'll have you where I won't have to rush you."

The engagement period ended in August, and also dark clouds over the romance began to gather. In a letter dated Aug. 10, Mr. Candler wrote "the announcement of my children's wedding has ever caused as much talk and prodded as many letters of every kind as has mine."

"I know that there has been to New Orleans from Atlanta, a prominent citizen," the letter stated, "who is greatly disturbed about my marriage to you, as you have been described by these bad Atlanta papers."

The following day it warned Mrs. DeBouchel not to expect any interviews or to distribute any pictures, and added, "whatever may ever come to me, I will not let it hinder my devotion to you. My heart is yours, my love for you is the ruling passion of my life."

The next day he penned a short note, declaring "I am only writing to cover my devotion to you. I am greatly troubled. You are ever on my heart and mind. I have one thing to thought—that whatever happens, you truly love me, and will still prove unworthy."

Today's stack of letters are expected to reveal his preparation for his departure for the west, alluded to in the "prominent citizen" whose visit to New Orleans was causing the capitalist much worry.

Attorneys indicated early today that introduction of these letters and several depictions would complete the plaintiff's case probably before court recessed late today.

Defense attorneys are contending that Mrs. DeBouchel was legally married to Roquet at the time she became engaged to marry Mr. Candler.

BOSTON STAR DEFEATS RAY

Lloyd Hahn of B. A. A. Defeats Chicagoan in Two-thirds of Mile Race at N. Y.

Ray, However, Showed His Heels to Rivals in Mile and a Third Event

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(By the Associated Press) John Ray, sturdy little Chicagoan who has ruled the ranks of distance runners for practically a decade faces one of the hardest tasks among America's chief Olympic hopes this year. This was the opinion of track followers today after "Chesley Joie" failed in a valiant attempt to score a double triumph in the Milwaukee A.A. games at Madison Square Garden last night, winning the mile and a half but finishing last in the two-thirds of a mile race.

Ray showed no better advantage than at any time this season in hanging up his single victory but his time record he established in winning the same Milwaukee feature a year ago. In the shorter race, the Illinois A.A. flier was outclassed from the start, except for one brief spurt, and in his place a new satellite, Lloyd Hahn of the Boston A.A., dashed to the fore.

Hahn's victory score within two-fifths of a second of the world's record of 2:13 3-5 was his second of the season over Ray and establishes the Boston-lane and Olympic distance timber.

Two spectacular sprint victories at sixty and three hundred yards by Loren Murchison of the Newark A.C., national champion, were other outstanding features of the evening night's card of the two-night Milwaukee carnival one of the greatest indoor meets ever held in this country.

No records were broken last night but one was set during the entire meet but it sparked from start to finish with brilliant competition among more than 1,000 entries, representing the pick of college and club stars from many parts of the country.

Murchison was close to record time in both of his sprint victories while Alan Hoffrich, Penn State holder of the inter-collegiate mile time, came close to a new world's mark in winning the Milwaukee "six hundred" for the second straight year.

The only record of the meet was a one mile, collegiate mark, the three minutes 32 4-5 seconds, established by Mersersburg Academy, which held the old mark of 3:25 2-5.

500 Compete in Meet
NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—National champions and Olympic team candidates will seek athletic honors within over 500 representatives of the various city departments in the third annual indoor athletic carnival of the municipal athletic activities committee at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The outstanding feature will be a series of three sprint races at 40, 50 and 60 yards in which Loren Murchison, the national title and record holder, will meet, among others, Bob McMillan, former national champion, who established an indoor record for 100 yards at the Brooklyn College games last Saturday.

Harold M. Osborne, the present decathlon champion, will endeavor to break the world's high jump record which he established last week in Chicago while Orville Wagner, giant poleman who sports the silks of the New York Athletic club, is expected to start in two features—the shot put, in which he is the national champion and the fifty yard yard walk race confined to city employees weighing two hundred and ten pounds or over.

SALARIES OF NORMAL SCHOOL PRINCIPALS
(Special to The Sun)

BOSTON, Jan. 31.—That the Normal schools of the state will suffer greatly unless the legislature overrules House Loring's department of administration and finance, and permits an increase in salaries of Normal school principals, was declared by Dr. Fayano Smith, state commissioner of education, at a hearing before the ways and means committee yesterday.

"Unless we are allowed to increase the salaries of our principals this year," Dr. Smith said, "we are certain to lose some of them. This is because the maximum salary we are permitted to pay is $1,500, while all around us states which are paying more.

Connecticut pays up to $5,000 to its Normal school principals; New Jersey pays $6,500, while New York and Pennsylvania allow as much as $8,500 in certain cases. Under such circumstances, it is only natural that those states should get the best principals and that our own state should be left with the poorest of those states."

Asked what salaries he desires to pay, Dr. Smith said his budget as submitted to Mr. Loring provided a salary of $2,500 for the principals at $3,000, $3,500 and $4,000 at Hyannis and North Adams.

Rep. Satter Washburn of the committee asked Dr. Smith if he would be allowed to expend the money in case the ways and means committee decided that he should have it.

"I cannot conceive," he said, "that finance would refuse to allow such the commission on administration and increases specifically authorized by the legislature."

"Don't be too sure of that," replied Rep. Washburn. "That is exactly what happened last year in at least one department."

FAKE MUSIC PUBLISHERS Lecturer at Normal School Describes Methods of the "Song Shark"

Many People Fleeced—Victims Secured Through Advertisements in Magazines

The method of fake music publishers, known as song sharks, in victimizing the gullible of this country was explained by William Arms Fisher of the Oliver Ditson company of Boston to the students of the State Normal school yesterday afternoon in the school hall.

Mr. Fisher's address was the third on the general topic, "The Perils of the 'Song Shark' and His Special Subject was 'Song Sharks and Their Victims.'"

He was introduced by Miss Inez Field, pianist of the faculty as the one man in this part of the country fitted to deal with the subject because of his connection with one of the largest music publishing houses in the country.

The first expose of song sharks was made five years ago, he said, by Edward Bok when managing editor of the Ladies Home Journal. Mr. Bok published an article explaining how women and men were fleeced by the song sharks and explained in detail the methods of the sharks. Despite the publicity given this exposure, he said, within a few months music publishers throughout the country found the people were again being victimized. Finally, he decided to learn the methods of the sharks by answering their advertisements. From the answers received and offers made by these fake publishers Mr. Fisher based his explanation.

The victim is secured through advertisements in the cheaper magazines of wide circulation which read after the style of the following: "Why don't you write the words for a song. We'll help you along by composing the music free and publishing same."

"I wrote a poem," he said, "and sent it to about a dozen of these advertisers. Within a day the answers came flooding in. The prices asked by these companies for rearranging the words, writing an accompaniment and setting everything in readiness for publication ranged from $20 to $50. With their replies came circulars telling of the fortunes made by song writers contracts, printed on beautifully tinted paper certificates of guarantee and money refund certificates.

"If the victim is at all slow in sending the money," he continued, "the song writers, composers, printed on up letters, one firm located in New York started off by offering to fix up my verse for $50. In each case the letter the price was cut until finally they promised to do the work for $20."

"If the amateur verse writer 'falls' for the money," he continued, "the song writers, composers, printed on up letters, one firm located in New York started off by offering to fix up my verse for $50. In each case the letter the price was cut until finally they promised to do the work for $20."

for their needy worded offers and the four leading music publishing houses in the country the same year of songs, hand, orchestra and choral music was but 1870.

"A few years ago," he continued, "some of these song sharks located in Washington. His correspondence authorities had to close a branch station near the office. Before the federal authorities closed this shop it was estimated the proprietor made over $50,000. When the authorities did not after the song sharks they found one of the most difficult things they had to do was to convince the American people that these song sharks were not so glib as they would not be convinced, even after being sent to jail by some shark they turned around and went to another and went through the process of being victimized again."

Competition in song-sharking became so great that only he continued, "the song sharks of the fake houses printed warnings in the magazines telling of the misadventures of other victims that was in fact the same game they were playing."

"The remedy for the whole situation," he said at conclusion, "the publisher must be convinced that the fake music publishing firms are really fakes. A painful and yet important task found in connection with those who deal with song sharks is to get them out of the music business. Many of them are so anxious for publicity that they will fall prey to the mere word of a song shark."

Mr. Fisher said that during the course of his investigation he looked up the copyright records and found that one of the fake publishers had copyrighted in one year as his own work some 10,000 songs. The total output of these song sharks.

Chapter 1—Jack Daw's Adventures

Have you ever traveled on skis? Well, it's great sport, and that's why we find Jack Daw making the time of his life. At first it is a little hard to handle skis, but Jack has managed to stand up on them very well, and as he travels along his pet dog Flip enjoys it too.

"Come on there, old fellow!" shouted Jack, as he came to a long, winding hill and prepared to take a real slide. As the little adventurer went over the top of the hill, Flip plunged along through the snow as best he could. Down, down, down went Jack, just like lightning.

Of course, Flip didn't have skis on. Dogs never wear them. So, after sinking into the snow several times in his flight down the hill, the faithful pet lost his footing and started rolling over and over. Jack was ahead of Flip, so didn't see his dog tumble. (Continued.)

SING A SONG OF WASH-DAY

The Riddle Lady had another brand-new riddle ready next day, and it was a good thing she had, for a lot of company had come to Riddle Town from Mother Goose Land to try their luck at guessing.

"Sing a song of wash-day, a basket full of clothes, A line hung with damp things In long flopping rows."

"But, oh, without us, wash-day Would be a useless thing. About as foolish as a crown That hasn't any king."

"Now you know who we are, Now you know our name, Though we're far from beautiful, We're needed just the same."

"And all my brothers Ride on slender horses. Poor thing's so thin he can't stand up, So needs a pair of shoes!"

"We have the sun quite dearly, But oh, we hate the rain. Umbrellas we can't hold at all, For we've no arms, it's plain."

MILK PRICE REDUCTION THEIR ANNUAL BANQUET

Distributors Promise Reduction of 1 Cent the Quart—Meeting Tonight

Lowell Retail Druggists' Association Members Make Merry at Meeting

Thirteen-cent pasteurized milk for Lowell consumers is a possibility, beginning tomorrow morning. A reduction from the present price of 14 cents per quart is coming, prominent distributors said today.

Lowell and vicinity milk producers and distributors will hold a special meeting in this city tonight to discuss retail milk prices for the coming months. All association members have been requested to attend without fail.

It was reported today that the local delivery 14-cent retail quart price for pasteurized milk would be slashed to 13 cents, starting tomorrow morning, but no sure-guarantee has yet been reached by local distributors to make that reduction.

Supplies of fresh milk are increasing locally and sales have not been maintained owing to local industrial conditions.

Nearly members of the Lowell association attended the annual meeting of the New England Milk Producers' association, held in Boston yesterday, among them being Norman L. Peasey, of Braintree, leader in the Lowell branch organization.

The future price of milk, selling at wholesale and retail, and probable prices that the farmer receives will be discussed at a closed conference by leading milk distributors after the close of the Boston convention program, just what was done at this conference could not be learned today, but it is said that many distributors feel that retail prices can be cut one cent per quart at this time because of the increasing supply of pasteurized milk coming into Massachusetts from northern states.

Tonight's meeting of Lowell distributors plans to settle promptly the future retail price problem, and it was broadly prophesied this morning that 13-cent milk for Lowell consumers is a certainty starting tomorrow morning.

The Boston convention yesterday completed much business of importance to the New England milk producers and distributors. Farmers looking to the N.E.M.P.A. hereafter will have more direct representation in the councils of that body. A plan adopted unanimously yesterday afternoon provides for increasing the voting delegates from 10 to 200.

Hitherto, a delegate voting has represented a district roughly corresponding to a county like Middlesex. Under the new plan from four to 16 delegates will be chosen from a county and will be selected from different areas so as to give the various communities a more local representation than they have had before. There are 22,000 members of the New England association at present and by the new plan it is expected that more of the influence of the annual meeting will go back to the individual members who are scattered widely about the New England states and upper New York.

Annual conventions in the future will be held in October instead of January, insuring large attendance at such gatherings.

Members of the association put forth an effort yesterday to earnestly support all "canned A" milk laws and regulations. Uniform laws are to be fought for throughout New England from now on.

The resolution of Dr. George B. Little of Schenectady, N. Y., as president of the association, was announced that evening. Dr. A. Sikes of Ellington, Ct. was elected vice-president.

The directors were elected during the afternoon, as follows: Ralph E. Worthley, Strong, Mr. to succeed E. L. McIntire who declined reelection; George M. Putnam, Guilford, N. H., re-elected; Fred H. Gerham, West Newbury, re-elected; George Dunbar, St. Albans, Vt., to fill unexpired term of Mark Moody, Waterbury, Vt., who resigned; Elmer Poole, North Andover, Mass., re-elected; Frank T. Peckham, Newbury, R. I., to succeed E. H. Thelmer, Alford, R. I., who declined reelection; R. A. Sikes, Ellington, Ct., re-elected; George B. Little, Schenectady, N. Y., re-elected.

Other officers chosen by the delegates were: Clerk, Richard Patten, Boston, re-elected; treasurer, H. L. Webster, West Canaan, N. H., re-elected; auditors, Chauncey Gordon, Waterbury, Vt., and S. M. Gupit, Waterbury, Vt., both re-elected.

E. D. TUCKER, Pres.
J. S. MACINNIS, Clerk.

The pharmacopoeia was forgotten by the druggists of Lowell last night when every drug store was locked up as tight as a pullman car window and all the prescription compounds put all their feet under the long tables at their feet under their annual banquet and get-together. You might not imagine that the bespectacled, careful, serious, conscientious soul that generally wraps up your prescription or sells you a stamp at post office "steps out" but he does—once a year at least, and last night was his night and he made the most of it. Jittery reached great heights at the banquet and the war tax, luxury tax, income tax and tobacco tax were all temporarily dismissed from mind. This morning saw the druggists all back at their counters, ready to pound a mean nose if the occasion demanded, but beneath their drug store cap quite flushed with pardonable pride and exultation at the success of last night's affair.

To get right down to facts, as the doctor does in his prescription, the affair was run off by the Lowell Retail Druggists' association. John Walsh, local president, presided over the principal speakers were Fred Jones of Lowell, president of the state association, James T. Finerman of Boston and Representative Fred O. Lewis of Lowell. A ladies' orchestra played during the dinner and also afforded accompaniment for Frank McArthur and Joseph O'Brien who played with songs.

William H. Noonan was chairman of the banquet committee. He was assisted by the association officers and the following members of the executive committee, President John Walsh, Secretary Fred Jones, Vice President Lucien Brunelle, Frank Finerman and Charles Deane.

THE LOWELL NAVY CLUB

Dance by Lowell's Own Sailors in Associate Hall Tomorrow Night

Lowell's own sailors will entertain at their dance in Associate hall Friday evening as only sailors can, in a real salty navy hop. Extensive plans have been made by the various committees in charge, and by their untiring efforts nothing has been left undone to make this party one of the outstanding features of the social season.

One Alford, chairman of the decorating committee, has a surprise in store for all who have never had the opportunity of seeing a "little wagon" dressed up on a gala day.

Arrangements have been made for a special musical program, one that will be in keeping with the usual navy way of entertaining, by Minner & Doyle's singing orchestra.

Harold J. O'Brien, chairman of the dance committee and one who has always tried to keep the navy well represented at all military and social functions in Lowell, states that all is now in shipshape condition. Tickets have been in great demand and many naval dances are in store for those who attend. He also says that he expects several officers from the first naval district to be present.

Paymaster Leggat of the club assures all dance lovers of a good time. It was through Mr. Leggat's suggestions and untiring efforts, together with a few other loyal supporters of naval ideas, that the Lowell Navy club was organized only a few months ago. All members are naval veterans and, although started with only a few members, the club now stands as one of the thriving organizations in this city. Its members are banded together to perpetuate military and social functions. Up to the present time its social undertakings have proven very successful. One of the greatest achievements was the Navy Day celebration last October. It is the intention of all similar clubs throughout the country, to make this an annual event and to give to the people of this city a real naval celebration on this day. Plans are also underway for extensive water sports and athletic events in the Merrimack river this coming summer.

The club's foremost service, however, will come on Memorial Day when the Navy club will band together to honor departed shipmates. The officers of the dance follow: Skipper Fred Emerson, Executive Officer Francis Gowan, Paymaster Harold O'Brien, Officer of the Deck Van Harold R. Herbert and Joseph Horatius R. Leggat, Junior Officer of the Deck Arthur Moran and Quartermaster Leo Robbins.

PLAN WINTER CARNIVAL

Meeting Last Night of Committee in Charge of Proposed Event

Delegates from various organizations and schools interested in the promotion of Lowell's second annual winter carnival met last night with the carnival committee of the A. C. club at the chamber of commerce rooms. Geo. H. Wood presided at the meeting and Miss Mabel Whitlock acted as secretary.

Those present were George P. Wells, chairman of commerce; Edward J. Melton, Bay State; John Shields, Y.M.C.A.; Frank MacLaughlin, Y.C.C.; A. J. Frank, Lowell Driving club; Miss Irene Matthews, J. Paul Bohrer, Maurice Lambert and Fred Novary, Lowell Advertising club; E. E. Towne, Y.M.C.A.; Harold Tucker, High School Winter Sports club; William Walsh, Highland Improvement association; Horace Frothingham, Rotary club; Paul Sullivan, Buttrick school; Miss Olga Shay, Greenhalge school; Miss Nellie Horner and Miss Mary P. Carroll, Moody school; Frank O'Brien, Vermont school; Miss Sadie Melanson, Girls' City club; John McTeague, Silesia A. A.; Hector Dubois, Centralville Social club; William Crossland, Pioneer; Miss Helen H. McGowan, Riverside school; and Chief Saunders, Fire department.

Counselor Lambert stated arrangements have been made to provide nurses and doctors at Port Hill park throughout the days of the carnival. Mr. Melton, scout executive, promised his troops would turn out strong for any work that might be assigned them.

Frank MacLaughlin reported that the parking club had procured a card of three shanty sleigh races. The Pioneers and the High School Sports club will have a sliding race between representative teams of four men each. The motorcycle club will run a hill-climb and a football game is to be arranged between the Pioneers and P. C. C. to be played on the snow for one 15-minute period.

Arthur Walden of Woonsocket, R. I., will bring down his famous dog team, led by the great "Chinook" and remain for three days. Mr. Wood announced, as expected, the winter short style show and ball of the Andoverians will be the main feature of the carnival and great interest is being shown in the local show of a cynical king and queen. More entries than ever are expected in the style show as the rules have been changed to permit young women not in leotards yet garbed in winter sports costume, to enter. The costume sports costume, to enter. The costume sports costume, to enter. The costume sports costume, to enter.

Paymaster Leggat of the club assures all dance lovers of a good time. ## LOWELL'S LATEST CLUB IS THE PAINT AND POT

The Paint and Pot club had its inception last night at the home of Meriton Rodger on Florence avenue when several young men of Lowell who are interested in art assembled there to organize as an association for the production and study of fine arts. The charter members include students and graduates of The Students Art League of New York, New School of Design, Boston Normal Art School, Boston Museum of Fine Arts. They are: Francis J. Durand, William C. Plante, Gerald R. Neuman, Joseph Perreault, John J. Drumm, William P. Lester, Meriton L. Rodger, George H. Keefe, Thomas J. Salmon, William Taylor, Everett Taylor and Howard Lewis. Mr. Durand was elected temporary chairman, and called the meeting to order. The business of the meeting was to choose a name for the organization and to draw up a constitution. It was unanimously voted to volunteer the services of the club to the Winter Carnival committee to design posters or in any other way that they may be of service. Their offer was accepted by Mr. Wood for the carnival committee.

To Announce Cause of Gases at Local School

thrown off from the trunk sewer which passes close to the corner of the school building. Arthur D. Weston, chief chemist of the department, who visited Lowell and looked over the situation, is of the opinion that two distinct kinds of gas are involved, and that two separate causes must be found. This opinion he bases upon his observation that the gases smelled in the Cabot school are not the same as those smelled at manholes in the street. The former, he is certain, is illuminating gas; the others, he is equally convinced, are the gases which naturally arise from a sewer, but which in this instance may be stronger than usual because of the presence of waste from the gas works. Should his deductions be proven correct, it will be necessary to find a gas leak somewhere in the immediate vicinity of the Cabot school. That will remedy the trouble so far as that particular smell is concerned. For the other, he suggests three possible remedies. One is the construction of another sewer, to carry wastes from the gas works direct to the river, an expensive undertaking. Another is treatment of the sewage with chlorine, or some other deodorant which will remove its offensive qualities. The third is to "plug up" the places through which the gases now escape from the sewer.

In connection with the last remedy, he points out that in the vicinity of the store, above referred to, there are several old pipes which formerly used for entering the trunk sewer, but which are no longer in use. They have been permitted to remain, however, and to all intents and purposes serve merely as a vent for the sewer. Mr. Weston suggests that the ground about the end of these pipes should be filled in solidly, or the pipes removed entirely and their entrance to the sewer plugged. HOYT.

DAWES COMMITTEE TO HEAR HUGO STINNES

BERLIN, Jan. 31.—(By the Associated Press.) The scene of the inquiry into German finances shifted to the capital of the Reich today as the first committee of experts, headed by Brigadier-General Charles G. Dawes, settled down for perhaps two weeks of work on Germany's budget and currency problems.

Assurances of the complete co-operation not only of the government but also of financiers and banks, it appeared, would make the experts' task chiefly that of formulating their conclusions from the vast amount of data which will be laid before them.

Many prominent industrialists, financiers and transportation magnates have signified their willingness to give the committee all facts and figures at their disposal.

Hugo Stinnes, and several leading bankers are among those who indirectly have agreed to offer testimony.

PROBE ODD LOT COTTON BROKERAGE BUSINESS

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Edward E. Bartlett, Jr., president of the New York Cotton Exchange and Louis Brooks, chairman of the Business Conduct committee of the same exchange, were among the first witnesses summoned to appear today at the opening of the public inquiry by Deputy Attorney General Wilbur W. Chambers into the activities of odd lot cotton exchanges and brokers.

Mr. Chambers said it was planned to call officials of the odd lot exchange, the National Cotton and Grain exchange and the Federal Cotton exchange, operating in New York. While the New York Cotton exchange does not do business in odd lots, virtually all purchases and sales of actual cotton in New York are made through it, Mr. Chambers asserted.

"Victims of a number of odd lot cotton firms which failed during the past few months lost millions of dollars," said Mr. Chambers. "So many complaints have been received that a searching investigation must be made into the odd lot cotton brokerage business."

TO CANONIZE LENINE AS BOLSHEVIK SAINT

MOSCOW, Jan. 31.—(By the Associated Press.) A movement to canonize the Bolshevik saint is gaining strength. As a further tribute to the dead premier the newspaper Laboring Moscow, the organ of the communist party in this city, proposes changing the name of that organization to the Lenin Bolshevik party. At the same time the newspaper prints a commandment which it suggests as a creed for the Leninites. The first is: "Before leaving us, Comrade Lenin, you ordered us to hold high and keep clean the great calling of a member of this party. We swear to you, Comrade Lenin, that we will fulfill your commandment with honor."

The other articles of the creed, couched in the same language are as follows: "To strengthen and maintain the party unity; to strengthen and maintain the dictatorship of the proletariat; to strengthen and maintain the union of workers and peace; to expand and fortify the union of Soviet republics; to strengthen and improve the position of the red army; and to strengthen and expand the communist international."

INVESTIGATORS REPORT ON LOSS OF DIXMUDE

PARIS, Jan. 31.—The report of the commission which investigated the loss of the dirigible Dixmude, finds that the principal cause contributing to the craft's destruction "was its employment during the winter season when few sheds or refuges were available and when any reliable weather forecast for her return was impossible."

The document concluded by observing that "in the presence of higher orders governing the program of training and flights of the Dixmude," the inquiry into responsibility for the accident is beyond the competence of the commission.

It was this conclusion which led Minister of Marine Hubert to appoint another commission which is to determine whether higher officials shall be held responsible.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headache, "biliousness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c. and 30c.—Adv.

1882 when the student body numbered about 400 and when the brothers lived in the same quarters in which they taught. "The school then and the school today are entirely different institutions," he said. "When I attended St. Patrick's we had four intensive years of study with a course better than that of the average high school. We had four solid years of English, mathematics, history, in short, we had a real school."

"My class started with 50 boys, but only six finished the course and were graduated. They were Thomas P. Keegan, Joseph B. Connelley, John P. Saunders, Thomas H. Sullivan, who have moved away, Dr. John H. O'Connor of Hyde Park and myself."

Counselor Fitzgerald, Trustmaster of the class of 1914, as Trustmaster of the occasion, took charge of the meeting following the school's enlightening talk. After extending his heartfelt thanks to the committee for the enjoyable time provided he touched upon the traditions of the school and its contributions to church and society. "It is a wonderful thing to think," he added, "that this school has given about 25 young men to God's altar. What holder of grander success can any school hope for?"

The Trustmaster, in closing terms, proceeded to introduce Rev. Bro. Clarence C.F.X., the popular superior of the present-day St. Patrick's, who spoke, in part, as follows: "I am here to give verbal expression to what you must already know; that you are welcome, very welcome back to St. Patrick's. We are proud and honored to have our reverend pastor here to preside at our reunion; his able assistants as well as some of the clergy who are members of our alumni, our reverend supervisor of schools who never fails to be on hand to deliver a message which is always inspiring, rich religious words of St. Patrick's as their alma mater; our honored guests among whom we are fortunate in having a national figure, the most famous athlete in the world of sport, the king of our national pastime, the idol of every red-blooded man and boy in this great land of ours."

It is here tonight because he is one of ours, just as you are, and we are naturally proud of him, and he is glad to be here, because he, like you, is the product of a Xavierian Brothers' school."

BUILDING STRENGTH
AFTER THE GRIP

Mrs. Willis Found Exactly the Remedy Needed to Regain Health and Energy

"An attack of the grip left me a miserable being, run down and without vitality," says Mrs. Laura E. Willis, of No. 57 Lincoln Street, Worcester, Mass. "My nerves were shattered. My blood was thin and poor and I was dizzy and had headaches that nearly drove me wild. I was so nervous that I got no restful sleep. My stomach was sour and I had no pains so that it seemed that I could not breathe."

"Through a friend in Amherst who had used them with benefit, I was induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they were exactly what I needed for they built up my blood, I began to gain strength and energy before I had finished the second box. My circulation was better and I suffered less from dizziness and headaches. My nerves became quieter and sleep refreshed me. The stomach trouble no longer bothered me. I shall always use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a spring tonic or whenever I need to get my blood and energy back to normal."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful in anemia, or thin blood, nervousness and its more aggravated forms of sick headache, neuritis, sciatica, lead neuritis. They give new strength and vigor and if you need this tonic you should get a sixty-cent box from your nearest druggist today and begin the treatment."

and although not the palatial place he would like to have it, it would not mean the same to the alumni if its floors were marbled and its walls gilded. Dr. McGarry attributed the progress of the school to the unselfish work of the Christian brothers and appealed to the gathering to keep on loving it and to be interested in all its undertakings. "The boys now attending the school expect the association to be interested in it. You should give the boys a good one at least once a year. I'd pay for it myself if I thought I could foot them into thinking you did. They appreciate something like this, and my recommendation, therefore, is of a practical nature that you do something for the boys and derive for yourselves a measure of consolation."

Big Reception to "Babe" Ruth
To the accompaniment of vociferous applause, "Babe" Ruth was next introduced. From all appearances, the home-run artist in a champion social flow as well as a diamond celebrity. In characteristic vein, he said he had been present at 17 functions during the past week and was pretty well tired out. He spoke of his association with Bro. Clarence Herman, Peter and Aquinas at St. Mary's Industrial school in Baltimore, which he attended 22 years ago and where he learned the fundamentals of the national pastime of Bro. Herman, now stationed at St. Patrick's here. "I regret to say," said the Babe, "that I have succeeded in becoming a better player than Bro. Herman."

I remember distinctly when Bro. Herman and I batted balls around the lot at St. Mary's. By the way, I never understood what they called that an industrial school. But anyway, 18 or 17 years ago, we played together. He showed me a lot of stuff, not only in baseball, but in football, too. Oh, yes, we used to play the rugby game. On a rocky field, too. I recall being knocked 'cold' in a scrimmage once."

Ruth then recounted several experiences at St. Mary's. He went there 22 years ago next month, he said. Though it was hard at first, but he learned its value in later years. "I had my own ideas when I was a kid," he added. "I never smoked a cigar until I was 19 years old. I went direct from school to baseball, joining the Baltimore club with Ben Egan and Ernie Shore. Our first jump was to North Carolina and I was at a loss to know how we would sleep on the train. I had never heard of a sleeping car."

The Babe, in concluding, gave some good advice, asking the men to encourage baseball among the younger talent and to give them an example of clean living. He was accorded a wonderful demonstration as he left the hall to keep another engagement with the Knights of Columbus. Outside the building his progress to his waiting automobile was barricaded with groups of kids anxious to get just one look at the man they had read so much about. As his machine sped away, youthful throngs shouted an evocative "Good-bye, Babe," and he was gone.

Dioecesan School Supervisor
Rev. Fr. Hickey, always a welcome addition to St. Patrick's programs, was the first speaker after Ruth's departure. Apropos the latter, he said Babe Ruth was known from one end of the country to the other as a man "for reaching home." "More than a great athlete, he is evidently a real man and worthy of emulation," Fr. Hickey added. He proceeded with a scholarly discourse on the value of

Sec. Mellon Favors Plan to Make Reductions Effective
on 1923 Payments

Believes Step Would Entail
No Difficulties on the
Treasury

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Secretary Mellon regards as practical and feasible the plan of republican members of the house ways and means committee to make the proposed income tax reductions effective on the 1923 payments which taxpayers will remit to the government beginning March 15. He believes the step would entail no difficulties on the treasury.

Further revision of the income tax rates was taken today by the republican members of the house ways and means committee after their break with the democrats during yesterday's consideration of the new revenue bill. A reduction in the 1923 taxes, which are payable this year, was voted yesterday by the majority members and they decided to work out an income rate schedule of their own, according to Chairman Green, because of the refusal of the democrats to accept their offer to compromise and draft a non-partisan plan. The amount of the reduction may be as high as 25 per cent. Representative Garner, Texas, ranking democrat of the committee insisted, however, that the republicans had offered no concert compromise and therefore none had been refused.

Interpellating the government in connection with the train wreck, in which three prominent opposition leaders escaped injury, although the locomotive of their train was damaged, the foes of Premier Kiyoura and his newly installed cabinet demanded that the premier resign personally.

Kiyoura, however, refused to rise. Great disorder immediately ensued, amid which Kenjiro Komatsu, minister of communications and a member of the house of peers, attempted to reply to the interpellations. In the confusion, an agitator, not a member of the diet, rushed to the platform and thrust Komatsu aside. A riot followed. The legislators used water containers as missiles and several engaged in fist combats.

Hostilities continued until the speaker of the house hastily declared a temporary adjournment, which was followed by dissolution of the diet.

Six rallies were held in Tokyo by the opposition today. The rallies, attended by the addition of an extra force, were maintaining a close watch over proceedings.

Vicount Takahashi, K. Inukai, leader of the former nationalist party, and Y. Osaki, former minister of justice, were the leaders on the train. They were en route from an opposition party rally at Osaka to Tokyo for resumption of the session of the diet. They escaped unharmed, although the locomotive of their train was damaged by logs and stones piled on the tracks.

and three pieces of artillery. Eighty officers were among the prisoners.

In capturing Esperanza, the federal took an important rebel code which resulted in the interception of wireless messages between the rebel generals de la Huerta and Estrada and rebel agents in the United States. The nature of the messages was not made public.

The federalists also took the pay roll of General Mayaguez's army, which contained nearly 200,000 pesos. Federal losses, according to official reports, total only 22 dead, including eleven officers and 262 wounded. Efficient use of artillery was responsible for the comparatively small number of casualties, General Martinez's report said.

General Martinez, accompanied by Secretary of War Terrero, arrived here last night and left immediately for Culiacan, military headquarters of President Obregon, for a conference with cabinet members the chief executive has set for today.

OH, WHAT A SIGHT!

One Look at Flapper and Back to Congo Missionary Goes

By N.E.A. Service
NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—After taking one good look at the American hobo-flapper, Mrs. Helen E. Springer, missionary, has taken the next boat back to the Congo.

MRS. HELEN E. SPRINGER

up in my native country during my absence.

For 23 years Mrs. Springer and her husband traveled as missionaries through the Belgian Congo and Rhodesia. They established churches, schools and medical stations and taught simple crafts to natives. Yet in all her experience she repeats:

"I've never known a native girl to dress her three yards of calico or bur-lap so suggestively about her body as the flappers of today dress their children and flaps. And find any of the six or seven yards of the most indecently made more than the pattern that goes on at tea tables and over the counters in New York."

So back to "cannibal land" she goes.

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. A family supply easily and quickly made. Saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Take 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly stops the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

NEW ORLEANS
BY MASON DIXON
N.E.A. Service Writer

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 31.—Some weeks ago, when New Orleans found itself without a ghost, due to a gambler's confession that the Haunted House was only a gambling resort and that the sporting agency had even hired "spirits" to mock and cloak their chains, the young bloods of the city found a new haunt for their othered citizens.

It was located in Gallatin street, a deserted little river-front thoroughfare since given over to heretic residents in the good old steamboat days. Now the little street, dark, narrow, lined with shabby, ancient, overhanging and sagging houses, is used by rascals and their ilk. For weeks society salaried men have been taking their partners at the Vieux Carre balls to hear the ghost of Gallatin street. This particular ghost made a roaring, hissing sound.

Finally, some brave soul, who was not in on the secret, ventured to hear the ghost in his den. It turned out to be the pet attorney of Judge Jules Tremol, who had parked his pet there for the winter.

American history records that Gen. Andrew Jackson won the battle of New Orleans. Nearly all historians admit his victory was largely due to reinforcements which rushed him by the pirate Jean Lafitte.

Now New Orleans is considering erecting a monument, near that of Gen. Jackson, to Pirate Lafitte.

For the first time since 1798 the dripping fountain at the Old Absinth house has stopped. The marble slab under the faucet, worn almost through by the constant drip from the spout, is dry. So gentlemen ever drank the absinthine with a spoon. The dry spout had to be placed in a glass and then slowly dissolved by the drip from the fountain.

Recently New Orleans experienced its coldest weather in years. The bartenders at the Old Absinth house, now politely called a soft drink emporium, forgot to protect the fountain. So it froze up and burst.

The price of turnip greens in New Orleans has soared to unheard-of heights. Negro mammy who once sold them in the old French Market for almost a song, have become the aristocrats of vegetable vendors. It is due to Joseph Daniels, former secretary of the navy.

When he was in Louisiana recently he remarked that Tom Marshall, former vice president of the United States, had said that what the nation needed was a good five-cent cigar.

"Mr. Marshall is wrong," said Mr. Daniels. "What America needs is not a good cigar, but a good five-cent green."

Immediately New Orleans commenced the rush on turnip greens.

AT ASSOCIATE HALL.
Hearlies' orchestra, from Portland, Me., will be the attraction tonight at Associate hall, furnishing the music at the Thursday evening social. Not only does this aggregation play superb music but it provides a program of entertainment entirely different from any other in its line. The members of the band are versatile and a regular vaudeville show is produced in connection with its customary duties. Just as a reminder—Coupons for the four-day New York trip will be given to each person entering the hall and the fourth winner in the contest will be drawn Saturday evening.

Over eighty thousand readers daily will have an opportunity to read your ad if you place it in The Sun, Lowell's greatest advertising medium.

A NEW ORGAN
A new Manual Estey church organ has been installed at The Episcopal church, 236 Westford street. It is much larger and better toned than the one previously in use. It will add greatly to the dignity and church-like atmosphere of funeral services held at this establishment. It is optional whether the organ is to be used at a funeral service or not. There is no charge for the use of the church, but if the organ is desired a fee is required for the organist. Mrs. Helen C. Taylor, organist at All Souls church, has consented to act in the latter capacity at The Episcopal church.

SISTER MARY'S BEST RECIPES

VEGETABLE CROWDERS
These crowdies are particularly good for winter lunches. Vegetables are quite as satisfactory as fish for these dishes.

Many children who will not drink milk will like it if served hot in a vegetable crowdie.

POTATO CROWDIE
Four cups milk, 4 cups diced potatoes, 1 cup diced carrots, 2 slices onions, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon celery salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon onion powder.

Put potatoes and carrots in kettle and pour over boiling water to barely cover. Cook five minutes. Add milk and cook, just below the boiling point for 20 minutes. Melt butter in a small pan with the slices of onion. Let stand over hot water for five minutes. Remove onion and stir in flour. Cook three minutes, stirring constantly, to cook the flour. Stir into milk and vegetable mixture, season with salt, pepper and parsley and let stand without boiling for three minutes before serving.

COLE CROWDIE
One cup of corn, 2 tablespoons diced salt pork, 1 small onion, 2 cups diced potatoes, 1 cup boiling water, 2 cups milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 large crackers.

Mix out fat from salt pork and add onion cut in slices. Cook slowly for five minutes without letting the fat brown. Stir in fat into soup. Kettle. Parboiled potatoes for five minutes and drain. Add fat in kettle, pour over boiling water and cook 20 minutes. Add corn and milk, season with salt and pepper and bring to the boiling point. Add butter. Split crackers and soak in cold milk for five minutes. Remove from milk and put into soup. Turn. Four hot crowdies over them and serve at once.

MIXED VEGETABLE CROWDIE
Two cups diced potatoes, 1 cup diced carrots, 1 cup diced turnips, 1 cup diced celery, 1 sweet green pepper, 1 onion, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 cups boiling water, 4 cups milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

Remove the seeds and white flour from pepper and onion. Mince onion. Put all the vegetables in soup kettle, pour over boiling water, cover and simmer 20 minutes. Add milk and salt and bring to the boiling point. Melt butter in a small pan and cook five minutes. Stir into milk and vegetable mixture, and cook three minutes longer. Season with pepper and serve with large crackers prepared as in the preceding recipe or with croutons.

FATHER ARRESTED AS SLAYER OF SCHOOLGIRL

MILWAUKEE, N. J., Jan. 31.—Thompson Dickson, father of Emma Dickson, Brockton high school girl, whose body was found in a swamp, two miles from her home, Sept. 22 last, last night was arrested in his home and formally charged with the murder.

Dickson, 38, grandfather of the girl, late a student, after lengthy questioning declared his son had beaten the girl to death in their house on the night of Sept. 18 and carried the body to the swamp.

WHY THEY CALL IT "TEAPOT DOME" ALSO A VIEW OF THAT FIELD

Here's why they call the now famous Wyoming oil field "Teapot Dome." Picture at the right shows the peculiar rock formation brought about by erosion, from which the district draws its name. Above is a panoramic view of the oil field which is now in the limelight as a result of the senate's probe of the conditions under which this portion of the naval oil reserve was leased to private interests. The Teapot Dome field is in central Wyoming, mainly in Natrona county.

Here's the Teapot Dome Teapot.

Pres. Coolidge Confers With Senate Leaders on Oil Leases

president desired to discuss with the two democratic leaders the whole question of the investigation as made by the senate committee and as contemplated by the legislative branch of the government.

The conference was the first the president has had with democratic senators since the oil lease inquiry assumed its present major proportions.

Strawn at White House

Silas H. Strawn, one of the special counsel selected by the president to conduct the government's investigation, arrived at the White House almost simultaneously with the two senators but did not go into conference with the president with them.

Arrangements were made yesterday for a conference between Mr. Strawn and J. Crawford Blyden, of Baltimore, N. C., an attorney said to have been intimately connected with the oil lease policies carried out by Secretary Daniels, under the Wilson administration.

Before the house naval committee, which is inquiring into the disposition of royalty oil under the Doherty and Sinclair leases, a debate developed over the Doherty policies, with republican members declaring that the door for the Fall conference originally was opened by the former democratic navy secretary.

The senate oil committee held no session, but three physicians selected by it went to the apartment where former Secretary Fall is confined to determine whether he is too ill to testify when the committee hearings are resumed tomorrow.

Rumors of Cabinet Changes

In the midst of these developments rumors of cabinet changes involving the retirement of Secretary Denby and Attorney General Daugherty, continued to fly thick and fast, but Secretary Denby denied a story that the two cabinet members had placed their resignations before the president.

It was indicated that all features of the problem were talked over with the president by Senators Robinson and Walsh, but that most of the conference was taken up with the question of the special counsel who will prosecute the government suits.

Mr. Coolidge has selected Thomas W. Gregory of Texas, a former democratic attorney general, to act with Mr. Strawn and he is on his way to Washington. There were evidence yesterday, however, that something might have gone amiss in the plan.

It was even more apparent today that the makeup of the government's counsel was a subject still occupying a large share of attention in administration circles.

It was to talk over that subject that Chairman Landrum of the oil committee and Senator Curtis of Kansas, the republican whip, made an early morning trip to the White House later Secretary Denby, the republican floor leader, also called on the president before his conference with the democratic leaders.

All the senators declined to say what trend the discussion had taken or whether the qualifications of either of the two attorneys selected by Mr. Coolidge had been questioned.

Judge Blyden, who is a democrat, would not comment on the question of whether he might become associated with the government's special counsel.

THIS Delay Vote

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—With the Walsh resolution directing the president to move for annulment of the naval oil leases still tangled in the net of senate discussion, three physicians examined former Secretary Fall to determine independently for the investigating committee whether his condition will permit him to appear soon for questioning.

Silas H. Strawn, one of the lawyers selected by President Coolidge to represent the government in court, continued meanwhile his examination of evidence developed in the investigation while awaiting the arrival of former Attorney General Gregory, who will act with him, and the house naval committee proceeded with its inquiry into the disposal of royalty oil.

House Committee Calls Denby

The house committee yesterday heard Rear Admiral Lathmer, judge advocate general of the navy, and has invited Secretary Denby, who remains under fire in the senate due to his connection with the oil leasing contracts, to present his views.

The senate committee held no session today, despite the request yesterday of E. L. Doherty, leader of the California reserve lease for a further hearing, but it will meet tomorrow to receive the report of Fall's condition from its physicians.

Paul V. Stuart, Jr., and Sterling Ruffin, who are expected to receive the oil lease then.

Politics and personal tilt together with efforts to modify the language of the Walsh resolution by three amendments, helped to force it over for further discussion today.

First payments on outstanding bonds of January 1 will amount to $23,712.95, a reduction of substantially $100,000 from last year. This figure does not include discount on temporary money for 1921 or interest on any bond issues floated prior to July 1 of the current year.

Budget Again Taken Up

The impact and audit commission met this afternoon to continue its 1921 budget deliberations. The committee

sion hopes to get all other department estimates out of the way before the school department estimates are submitted.

National Music Week

Mayor John A. Donovan is in receipt of a letter from the National Bureau for the Advancement of Music, asking his cooperation in the observance of National Music week, from May 4 to 16. The letter is from C. M. Tremaine, secretary of the bureau and suggests the desirability of taking some action toward the formation of a music week committee for the proper observance of the event in Lowell.

National Music week is the outgrowth of many local music weeks all over the country and its purpose is to spread a love for music and appreciation of its growing importance in the life of the individual and the community. Secretary Tremaine already has been in communication with Albert Edmund Brown, one of the leaders in local music circles, and Supt. John W. Kernan, of the park department.

Looking Ahead to 1932

A communication from the Suburban Institution of New York to Mayor Donovan today solicits his co-operation in a national celebration of the 200th anniversary of the birth of George Washington, which falls on Feb. 22, 1932. The mayor is asked to name a committee to care for local affairs and work with the national organization now in the process of formation.

Wild Scenes at Indianapolis

spectful hearing for "a member of the president's cabinet."

While the tumult proceeded Lewis again took the floor and shouted at the top of his voice to make himself heard:

"The honor of your organization is at stake. You are on trial before the country. Exercise self-restraint that our organization be not publicly shamed."

He then requested those unwilling to hear the speaker to leave the hall. After prolonged handclapping Secretary Davis began to speak.

Secretary Davis drew applause when he recommended a long term wage contract of five years, declaring such a wage agreement would bring about a long period of harmony in the coal industry and would eliminate "spot, or short coal gambles—the worst menace of the industry."

Secretary Davis, in his speech, pleaded for a way in which to make the coal mines of the country safer for the miners.

CHILD SERIOUSLY INJURED BY AUTO

Eight-year-old Saurie Haney, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Haney of Westford, was seriously injured late yesterday afternoon when struck by an automobile operated by Frank Wright, Jr., of Westford.

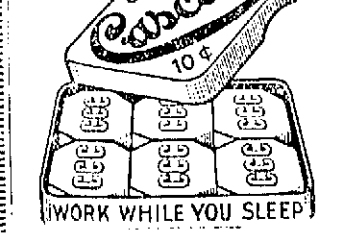

He was removed to the Lowell General Hospital where it was found he was suffering from a fractured skull. His name was placed on the dangerous list last night and while his condition is still considered serious it is reported today that he is considerably improved.

EARLY MORNING ROOF FIRE

Sparks from a chimney set fire to a roof at 20 Appleton street at 4:30 this morning. Apparatus responding to a telephone alarm extinguished the blaze before any considerable damage had been done.

BEST LIVER AND BOWEL LAXATIVE

If Headachy, Bilious, Sick, Constipated

No illness or inconvenience follows a candy laxative and bowel cleansing with "Candy Cathartic." Headachy, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, and all such distressing conditions are quickly relieved. For Mrs. Weston and Children—the box, only 25 and 50 cents.

Mrs. Freese Succeeded her husband as sheriff.

OIL PLEASE, MR. OFFICER TAKE ME TO JAIL!

Going to jail isn't half bad any more in Bayview, O. And there's a reason. Crawford county's free public boarding house has a new warden matron. Pretty 19-year-old Mildred Freese, just out of high school last June, took over the keys when her mother, Mrs. Frankie Freese, was appointed sheriff. Mrs. Freese is serving out her husband's unexpired term. He was killed in an automobile accident.

BUNKER CONVICTED OF MURDER

DETROIT, Jan. 31.—Jesse Bunker, alias Murphy, was convicted late yesterday of the murder of Frederick Webster, who was fatally wounded last August in a revolver fight between detectives and bandits they surprised in an attempt to hold up a blind pig. The jury was out 28 minutes. He was sentenced to a life term in prison. Bunker, in a statement to the court following his conviction admitted participation in the hold up, but denied that he fired the fatal shot.

Baldheaded Men Unconsciously Contributed to Amusement of Spectators

Outlines of Bird Formed by Shiny Pated Men Sitting in Parquet Seats

DANZIG, Jan. 31.—Baldheaded men occupying parquet seats in a Danzig theatre contributed unconsciously to the amusement of spectators in the galleries recently as the result of the whims of the ticket seller. It is customary in central Europe for men to remove their hats upon entering shops or theatre lobbies and the innocent agent took advantage of this practice to use the bald heads seen to carry out his scheme of fancy. He drew a picture on his seat chart and then disposed of certain seats only to bald-headed men.

As the parquet filled and the "bald heads" took their respective seats the outline was complete. Just before the curtain rose the audience above could plainly distinguish the outlines of a bird formed by the shiny pated men sitting conspicuously below and wondering what all the laughing was about.

At present he is pastor of the First Universalist church of the North Shore city and is known as a forceful leader and a man of splendid organization ability.

HAMILTON CO.

PASSES DIVIDEND

Optimism still reigns on Jackson street, though dividends are all Hamilton Manufacturing company has omitted its regular dividend due to be declared at this time. The Lowell textile corporation has been paying one per cent. quarterly.

The pausing of the January payment, hitherto made regularly to large numbers of stockholders residing in many sections of New England, will cause surprise. For months past, the Jackson street textile mills have been operating under most unfavorable conditions, with running schedules limited to three days.

Hopeful though the directors of the venerable Lowell industrial concern are that present conditions will soon change for the better, it was decided to withhold dividend payments for the time being.

The following notice has been issued to all stockholders this week:

"Owing to the present disturbed and unfavorable conditions of the markets, both for our raw materials and for our products (which conditions, it is hoped, are temporary), the directors of the Hamilton Manufacturing company have thought it the proper conservative course to defer action on the dividend."

There is $2,600,000 of Hamilton stock outstanding.

Small lot sales of Hamilton securities have sold earlier in the winter as high as 50 and 52. Today the stock is quoted on the Boston unlisted securities market as "46 bid, 48 asked." A few sales were reported on the mill stock brokers' boards Monday at an average of 45.

EVANGELISTS BANQUETED

'First Aid' For Sick Children

THE experienced mother is not alarmed when a child becomes sick. She knows that most of the ailments of childhood are trifling. If it seems serious she calls a doctor, but whether or not she calls him she gives, first of all, a good laxative medicine. The doctor would advise that anyway. It is his "first aid." Such experienced mothers as Mrs. Everett E. Hunt of Belmont, Okla., who has three children and never any sickness, and Mrs. F. B. Kuklenski of Prosser, Wash., always give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at the first indication of sickness. Such timely doses have saved them much worry.

The Meaning of "Good"

All doctors agree that a thorough cleaning out of the bowels is of first importance for it removes dangerous intestinal poisons. They will also advise a "good laxative," and by "good" they mean one that is effective and yet harmless. They know that there are poisons that never should be given to children - colic, which is mercury and loosens the teeth; pleurophthalin, a coal-tar drug that causes skin trouble; salts, which concentrate the blood and dry up the saliva. They consider Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin safe for all ages as they know it is a simple vegetable compound of Egyptian aenna with pepsin and agreeable aromatics. The formula is on the package.

Give Laxative for Colds

Adults should have at least one movement of the bowels every 24 hours, and children two or three. Failure to have it means constipation, then headache, biliousness, drowsiness, lack of appetite. Give a dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at bedtime, and there will be health and good feeling by morning. A dose costs less than a cent, and a bottle can be had at any drug store. Colds and constipation come together, so if you notice coughing or sneezing stop it at once with Syrup Pepsin.

CHRONIC NEPHRITIS

Chronic nephritis is a disease of the kidneys when the process is in the stage of sclerosis, atrophy and contraction, whatever may have been the primal cause.

Two important reasons for the prevalence of chronic nephritis (Bright's disease) which takes a death toll of about 70,000 each year in the United States, are:

First, the disease is caused from some bacterial infection from an earlier attack of some disease.

Second, it is due in many cases to a high use of protein foods (meats) and animal products. Arterio sclerosis, or hardening of the smaller arteries and general contraction of the kidneys, is another cause.

When infection is clear the cause the primal agents were mainly gonorrhea and scarlet fever. Even though the attack may be light, the most careful and skilful treatment is necessary.

to ward off any future attacks on the kidneys from the poison of these destroyers.

Abuse of protein requirements in probably 75 per cent. of people in the temperate latitudes is a strong cause of indolent chronic nephritis. Europeans and people of the United States and Canada consume far larger amounts of protein in the form of meat or animal food, than do the races of tropical countries. Tropical people are far more temperate in their eating, and rarely, if ever, suffer death from chronic nephritis.

The common habit of over-eating throws far too much work on the kidneys, and excessive work of this sort weakens any organs or glands to the danger point of disease and trophic condition. The sensible diet is a strong weapon with which to fight off chronic nephritis. Vary your diet with vegetables and fruits and vegetable oils whenever possible. They act as a strong counter-balance to the protein foods.

Do not on any account, if you believe yourself afflicted with chronic nephritis, dose yourself with some medicine that claims to be a kidney cure. Such treatment is usually of no value and often causes real harm to the over-worked kidneys.

TURKEY SUPPER BY LADIES' AID SOCIETY

A turkey supper prepared by the Ladies' Aid society of the Matthews Memorial church was served at the first annual banquet of the Douglas class held in the social hall of the church last night. The following program of entertainment was given at the conclusion of the banquet:

Potter, violin solo, Graham Pascall; remarks, Rev. John T. Ulforn; solo, N. W. Matthews, Jr.; cornet solo, Robert F. Smith; solo, selected John Poole; remarks, R. C. Campbell; solo, selected, Arthur Hiley; closing hymn, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," assembly. The accompanist was J. Edward Leth.

Mrs. N. W. Matthews is the class teacher and the officers are as follows: Miss Isabel Cadden, president; Mrs. Clement Haines, vice president; Mrs. Robert Smith, secretary; Mrs. N. W. Matthews, treasurer.

MIDDLESEX NORTH MEDICAL SOCIETY

The quarterly meeting of the Middlesex-North Medical society was held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at St. John's hospital and was attended by about 75 physicians. Dr. James B. O'Connor presided.

"The Heart in Hypertension," was the subject discussed by the speaker of the evening, Dr. James P. O'Hare of the Peter Bent Brigham hospital of Boston.

The question of the recent practice of medicine by persons in various localities who lacked the proper authority to do so was discussed at length and at the close President O'Connor appointed the authorized committee to investigate unauthorized practice of medicine. Dr. T. A. Starnes, Dr. J. A. McLean, Dr. G. F. Martin, Dr. W. P. Jackson, Dr. M. L. Alling and Dr. J. R. O'Connor, ex-officio.

At the close of the session the members sat down to a bountiful dinner served by the Lydon Catering Co.

MEN ARRESTED HERE HELD IN $500 EACH

Joseph C. Ross and Maurice Gagnon were arraigned in Lawrence district court yesterday for larceny of an auto and were held in $500 each for the May session in Newburyport of the Essex county superior court. The two were arrested in Lowell last Monday through the vigilance and attention to duty of Policeman Owen S. Conway.

The arrest was made after a spectacular chase through Belvidere street. At the time they were riding in a car stolen from a Haverhill resident the Saturday previous. Officers Conway and Dan Lynch appeared in Lawrence yesterday as witnesses for the state.

The Automobile Show

It is a man when it comes down to life's preferred vacation. Mr. Fuller is always delighted to come to Lowell, particularly when his grand old official duty has a colorful aspect with motor cars in the background. The Lowell automobile dealer's distinguished guest this evening is just as well at home in a setting in which automobiles predominate. Plans for the gubernatorial reception were completed yesterday afternoon.

What To Do For Frail, Feeble, Old People

"When age begins to thin the blood all the vital functions slow down and impair the health. In such cases," says Dr. Emil Sauer, "I know of nothing better than true organic iron."

"What old people need most, is something to put back the iron in their blood. Without iron nothing you eat does you any good. Your food merely passes through you. It is the iron in your blood that enables you to get the nourishment out of your food."

"For old people who feel their former strength slipping away, I always prescribe Nuxated Iron, which contains iron like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples and like the iron in your blood. It is a true tonic, blood and body builder, and in my own practice, I have had aged people tell me that they felt years younger after only a few weeks' time."

Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Emil Sauer, may be had at any good drug store. Try taking two tablets three times a day for two weeks, and if you do not feel years younger with new strength, energy and health, your own druggist will gladly refund your money.

"DEAR SWEETUM" LETTERS READ

Love Notes Introduced at
Breach of Promise Suit
Against Asa G. Candler

Counsel Declares Candler
Wrote Three Letters a
Day to Mrs. De Bouchel

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 31.—A stack of letters to "Dear Sweetum" were neatly arranged on a counsel table in the United States district court here and were expected to be read during the second day of the trial of the $500,000 breach of promise suit against Asa G. Candler, senior, soft drink magnate of Atlanta, by Mrs. Onezima DeBouchel of New Orleans.

Yesterday thirteen epistles were read, and plaintiff's counsel stated Mr. Candler wrote to Mrs. DeBouchel as many as three letters a day. "And I am to be the master of your heart; my my, I never dreamed that I would ever master the heart of a queen. I must begin to expand so that I can steadily hold the scepter of my kingdom and prepare to rule with king's justice," read Mrs. DeBouchel's counsel yesterday from a letter he said had been penned by Mr. Candler to Mrs.

DeBouchel who at the time was residing in Reno, Nev.

The dates were early in the spring of 1922. Until then, after their first meeting in November, 1921, at a Confederate veterans' union here, Mr. Candler corresponded with Mrs. DeBouchel, so a letter stated, "for culture and pastime which, being done, I found myself enjoying."

Later another letter stated that Mr. Candler had investigated the "manner of woman" Mrs. DeBouchel was, and, after "from every available source" learned of your excellency, good breeding and personal charm, unrestrainedly loved you."

Proposal of Marriage

Then came the proposal which Mrs. DeBouchel, according to a letter read from Mr. Candler, accepted after she had obtained a divorce from Adolphe Rouquet in Reno in September, 1921.

"The cards are being engraved and the envelopes are being addressed in my office," one letter read. "I am having your marriage ring made to fit my little finger. Is that right? Send me a string measure in your next letter." The same epistle stated Mr. Candler had three conferences to hold, "then I am ready to depart for Eden, as it was after Adam's nap and his experience. I am doing my best act, you see, while you are my sweetheart. After this chapter is ended, I'll have you where I won't have to rush you."

The engagement secret leaked out in August, and also dark clouds over the romance began to gather. In a letter dated Aug. 16, Mr. Candler wrote "the announcement of no citizen's wedding has ever caused as much talk and produced as many letters of every kind as has mine."

"I know that there has gone in New Orleans from Atlanta a prominent citizen," the letter stated, "who is greatly disturbed about my marriage to you, as you have been described by these bad Atlanta papers."

"The following day he warned Mrs. DeBouchel not to give any interview or to distribute any pictures, and added, 'Whatever may come to prevent marriage, will not hinder my devotion to you. My heart is yours, my love for you in the ruling passion of my life.'"

The next day he penned a short note, declaring "I am only writing to give my devotion to you—I am greatly troubled. You are ever on my heart and mind. I have one cheering thought—that whatever happens, you truly love me, and will still prove unworthy."

Today's stack of letters are expected to reveal his preparation for his departure for the west, alleged findings of the "prominent citizen" whose visit to New Orleans was raising the capitalist much worry.

Attorneys intimated early today that introduction of these letters and several depositions would expedite the plaintiff's case, probably before court recessed late today.

Defense attorneys are contending that Mrs. DeBouchel was legally married to Rouquet at the time she became engaged to marry Mr. Candler.

WILL SUBMIT REPORT ON ASSESSORS' DEPT.

The committee appointed to investigate the assessors' department of which Alderman Cosgrove is chairman is preparing a report to be submitted in the near future. The business of the committee has been somewhat delayed by Alderman Cosgrove's illness. The committee has been looking up the methods in force in the assessment of property in other cities with a view to finding how the law is interpreted by different bodies. The whole matter is involved in technicalities, but the committee hopes to present a report embodying its conclusions very soon.

BOSTON STAR DEFEATS RAY

Lloyd Hahn of B. A. A. Defeats Chicagoan in Two-thirds of Mile Race at N. Y.
Ray, However, Showed His Heels to Rivals in Mile and a Third Event

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(By the Associated Press.)—Lloyd Hahn, sturdy little Chicagoan who has ruled the ranks of distance runners for practically a decade, faces one of the hardest tasks among America's chief Olympic hopes this year. This was the opinion of track followers today after "The Star" fell in a valiant attempt to score a double triumph in the Milwaukee A.A. games at Madison Square Garden last night, winning the mile and a half and the two-thirds of a mile race.

Ray showed to better advantage than at any time this season in banking up his single victory but his third race was a defeat. In the mile and a half race, established in winning the same Milwaukee feature a year ago, in the shorter race, the Illinois A.A. runner was outclassed from the start, except for one brief spurt, and in place a new satellite, Lloyd Hahn of the Boston A.A., flashed to the fore. Hahn's victory score within two-fifths of a second of the world's record of 2:43.5 was his second of the season over Ray and establishes the Bostonian as a real Olympic distance runner.

Two spectacular sprint victories at sixty and three hundred yards by Loren Murchison of the Newark A.C., national champion, were other outstanding features of the closing night's card of the two night Milwaukee carnival, one of the greatest indoor meets ever held in this country.

No records were broken last night and but one was set during the entire meet but it sparkled from start to finish with brilliant competition among more than 1,000 entries, representing the pick of college and club stars from many parts of the country.

Murchison was close to record time in both of his sprint victories while in the 300 yard race, which was the intercollegiate mile time, came close to a new world's mark in winning the Milwaukee "six hundred" for the second straight year.

The only record of the meet was a one-mile school mark of three minutes 33.4 seconds, established by Mersburg Academy, which held the old mark of 3:35.5.

500 Compete in Meet
NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—National champions and Olympic team candidates will seek athletic honors with over 500 representatives of the various city departments in the third annual indoor athletic carnival of the municipal athletic activities committee at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The outstanding feature will be a series of three sprint races at 40, 50 and 60 yards in which Loren Murchison, the national title and record holder, will meet, among others, Bob McAlister, former national champion, who established an indoor record of 100 metres at the Brooklyn college games last Saturday.

Harold M. Osborne, the present dectathlon champion, will endeavor to break the world's high jump record which he established last week in Chicago while Orville Wauzer, giant policeman who sports the silks of the New York Athletic club, is expected to star in two features—the shot put, in which event he is the national champion and the fifty yard fat man race confined to city employees weighing two hundred and ten pounds or over.

SALARIES OF NORMAL SCHOOL PRINCIPALS

(Special to The Sun)
BOSTON, Jan. 31.—That the Normal schools of the state will suffer greatly unless the legislature overrules House Jorling's department of administration and finance, and permits an increase in salaries of Normal school principals, was declared by Dr. Payson Smith, state commissioner of education, at a hearing before the ways and means committee yesterday.

"Unless we are allowed to increase the salaries of our principals this year," Dr. Smith said, "we are certain to lose some of them. This is because

FAKE MUSIC PUBLISHERS Lecturer at Normal School

Describes Methods of the "Song Shark"
Many People Fleeced—Victims Secured Through Advertisements in Magazines

The method of "fake music publishers," known as song sharks, in fleecing the public of this country was explained by William Arms Fisher of the Oliver Ditson company of Boston to the students of the State Normal school yesterday afternoon in the school hall.

Mr. Fisher's address was the third on the general topic, "The Perils of the Credulous" and his special subject was "Song Sharks and Their Victims." He was introduced by Miss Inez Field, Dames of the faculty as the one man in this part of the country fitted to deal with the subject because of his connection with one of the largest music publishing houses in the country.

The first exposure of song sharks was made a year ago, he said, by Edward Bok when managing editor of the Ladies Home Journal. Mr. Bok published an article explaining how women and men were fleeced by the song sharks and explained in detail the methods of the sharks. Despite the publicity given this exposure, he said, within a few weeks music publishers throughout the country found the people were again being victimized. Finally, he decided to learn the methods of the sharks by answering their advertisements and offering made by these fake publishers. Mr. Fisher bases his exposure of the victim's exposure through advertisements in the chapter magazines of wide circulation which read after the style of the following: "Why don't you write the words for a song. We'll help you along by composing the music free and publishing same."

"If I write a poem," he said, "and sent it to about a dozen of these advertisers. Within a day the answers came flooding in. The prices asked by these companies for contrabanding the words, writing an accompaniment and getting everything in readiness for publication ranged from $20 to $50. With their replies came exciting telling of the fortunes made by song writers. Contracts printed on beautifully tinted paper certificates of guarantee and money refund certificates.

"If the victim is at all slow in sending the money," he continued, "the song writers, contracts printed on beautiful paper, are sent to New York, started off by offering to fix up my verse for $20, for each succeeding letter the price was cut until finally they promised to do the work for $20."

"If the amateur verse writer falls for the money," he continued, "the song writers, contracts printed on beautiful paper, are sent to New York, started off by offering to fix up my verse for $20, for each succeeding letter the price was cut until finally they promised to do the work for $20."

When Fred L. Woodward was called on a drunkenness charge, the probation officer informed the court that he was making his third appearance in three weeks, the latest being yesterday, when he was released. "You've had all the indulgence that is going to be given you," the court told him. "You're making prohibition a laughing stock. If you have anything to say, I'll hear you."

Woodward responded that if given one more opportunity to go straight and narrow, the court would not see him again.

"Is that all you have to say?" inquired the court.

"Yes, sir."

"Three months in the house of correction. Next case, Mr. Clerk."

Kakeritz (Ignatowicz) was saved from a house of correction sentence by the fact that he has five children and works steadily. He was charged with drunkenness, his wife stating that he abused her and pulled her hair last night. A suspended sentence of three months was imposed.

Michael Kesley was given two weeks to make restitution for damages to a house of correction sentence by the fact that he has five children and works steadily. He was charged with drunkenness, his wife stating that he abused her and pulled her hair last night. A suspended sentence of three months was imposed.

for their nicely worded offers, and the four leading music publishing houses in the country the same year of songs, band, orchestra and choral music was but 1870.

"A few years ago," he continued, "one of these song sharks located in Washington. His correspondence was so great that the postoffice authorities had to open a branch station near his office. Before the federal authorities closed this shop it was estimated that the proprietor made over $50,000. When the authorities did not allow the song sharks they found one of the most difficult things they had to do was to convince the American people that these song sharks were preying upon them. Some victims were so foolish that they would not be convinced, even after being struck by one song shark they turned around and wrote to another and went through the process of being victimized again.

"Competition in song-sharking has come so great recently," he continued, "that several of the 'fake' houses are making fortunes in the magazines telling of the fraudulency of other advertisers that was in fact the same as they were playing."

"The remedy for the whole swindle," he said in conclusion, "is publicity. The remedy must be convinced that these fake music publishing firms are really fakes. A national and yet humorous threat found in connection with those who deal with song sharks is their anxiety to see their own names blazoned forth on sheet music that they are so anxious for publicity that they fall easy prey to the more clever song sharks."

Chapter 1—Jack Daw's Adventures

Have you ever traveled on skis? Well, it's great sport, and that's why we find Jack Daw having the time of his life. At first it is a little hard to handle skis, but Jack has managed to stand up on them very well, and as he travels along his pet dog Flip enjoys it too.

"Come on there, old fellow," shouted Jack, as he came to a long, winding hill and prepared to take a real slide. As the little adventurer went over the top of the hill, Flip ploughed along through the snow as fast as he could. Down, down, down went Jack, just like lightning.

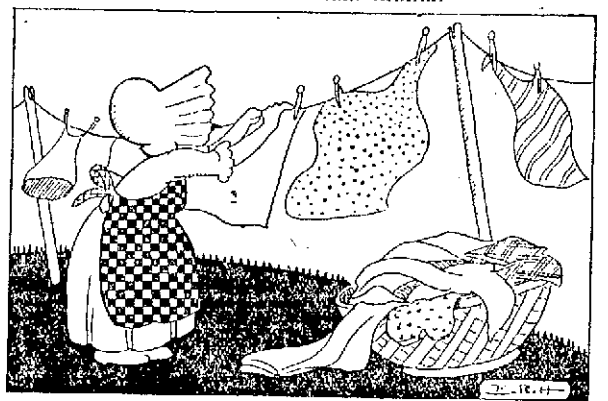

Of course, Flip didn't have skis on. Dogs never wear them. So, after sinking into the snow several times in his flight down the hill, the faithful pet lost his footing and started rolling over and over and over. Jack was ahead of Flip, so didn't see his dog tumble. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

AN AWFULLY CLEAN RIDDLE

The Riddle Lady had another brand-new riddle ready next day, and it was a good thing she had, for a lot of company had come to Riddle Town from Mother Goose Land to try their luck at guessing.

Nancy and Nick helped Humpty Dumpty to receive them and say how-do-you-do and all that.

"This was the riddle the Riddle Lady asked:

"Sing a song of wash-day,
A basket full of clothes,
A line hung with damp things
In loom-flopping rows.

"But, oh, without us, wash-day
Would be a useless thing,
About as foolish as a crown
That hasn't any king.

"We're not known for beauty,
Plain as we can be,
Woods-heads they call us—
We're dumb, too, don't you see.

"Now you know who we are,
Now you know our name,
Though we're far from beautiful,
We're needed just the same.

"I said all my brothers
Ride one slender horse,
Poor things so thin, they can't stand up,
So needs a prop, or course!

"We love the sun quite dearly,
But oh, we hate the rain,
Umbrellas we can't hold at all,
For we're no arms, it's plain.

MILK PRICE REDUCTION

Distributors Promise Reduction of 1 Cent the Quart—Meeting Tonight

Thirteen-cent pasteurized milk for Lowell consumers is a possibility, beginning tomorrow morning. A reduction from the present price of 14 cents per quart is coming, prominent distributors said today.

Lowell and vicinity milk producers and distributors will hold a special meeting in this city tonight to discuss retail milk prices for the coming months. All association members have been requested to attend without fail.

It was reported today that the local delivery 14-cent retail quart price for pasteurized milk would be slashed to 13 cents, starting tomorrow morning, but no agreement has yet been reached by local distributors to make that reduction.

Supplies of fresh milk are increasing locally and sales have not been maintained owing to local industrial conditions.

Nearby members of the Lowell association attended the annual meeting of the New England Milk Producers' association, held in Boston yesterday, among them being Norman L. Peasey of Dracut, leader in the Lowell branch organization.

The future prices of milk, selling at wholesale and retail, and probable prices that the farmers' raisers of milk will receive, starting tomorrow, was discussed at a closed conference by leading milk distributors after the close of the Boston convention program. Just what was done at this conference, could not be learned today, but it is said that many distributors feel that retail prices can be cut one cent per quart at this time because of the increasing supply of pasteurized milk coming into Massachusetts from northern states.

Tonight's meeting of Lowell distributors plans to settle promptly the future retail price problem, and it was broadly prophesied this morning that 13-cent milk for Lowell consumers is a certainty starting tomorrow morning.

The Boston convention yesterday completed much business of importance to the New England milk producers and distributors. Farmers belonging to the N.E.M.P.A., hereafter will have more direct representation in the councils of that body. A plan adopted unanimously yesterday after delegates from 50 to 300.

Moreover, a delegate voting has represented a district roughly corresponding to a county like Middlesex. Under the new plan from four to 10 delegates will be chosen from each area so as to give the various communities a more local representation than they have had before. There are 22,000 members of the New England association at present and by the new plan it is expected that more of the influence of the annual meeting will go back to the individual members who are scattered widely about the New England states and upper New York.

Annual conventions in the future will be held in October instead of January, insuring large attendances at such gatherings. The association put itself on record yesterday as earnest supporters of all "grade A" milk laws and regulations. Uniform laws are to be fought for throughout New England from now on.

The re-election of Dr. George R. Little of Braintree, N. Y., as president of the association, by the incoming board of directors, was announced last evening. R. A. Sikes of Ellington, Ct., was elected vice-president.

The directors were elected during the afternoon, as follows: Ralph T. Worthington, Strong, Me., to succeed E. L. McIntire who declined re-election; George M. Putnam, Connecticut, N. H., re-elected; Fred E. Gorham, West Newbury, re-elected; George Dunmore, St. Albans, Vt., to fill vacancy; term of Mark Moody, Waterbury, Vt., who resigned; Elmer Poole, North Dartmouth, Mass., re-elected; Frank T. Peckham, Newport, R. I., to succeed E. H. Theibert, Albion, R. I., who declined re-election; L. A. Sikes, Ellington, Ct., re-elected; George R. Little, Schaghticoke, N. Y., re-elected.

Other officers chosen by the delegates were: Clerk, Richard Patton, Boston, re-elected; treasurer, H. L. Webster, West Canaan, N. H., re-elected; auditors, Chas. E. Gleason, Haverhill, and S. C. Smith, Waterbury, Vt., both re-elected.

THEIR ANNUAL BANQUET

Lowell Retail Druggists' Association Members Make Merry at Meeting

The pharmacopoeia was forgotten by the druggists of Lowell last night when every drug store was locked up as tight as a pillbox and window and all the prescription compounders put their feet under the long tables at Marie's for their annual banquet and get-together. You might not imagine that the bespectacled, careful, serious-looking man who generally wraps up your prescription or sells you a stamp at cost over "steps out" but he does—once a year at least. And last night was his night and he made the most of it. hilariously reached great heights at the banquet and the year tax, luxury tax, income tax and tobacco tax were all temporarily dismissed from mind. This morning, however, ready to pound a mean pestle if the occasion demanded, but beneath their drug store tan quite flushed with pardonable pride and exaltation at the success of last night's affair.

To get right down to facts, as the doctor does in his prescription, the affair was run off by the Lowell Retail Druggists' association. John Walsh, local president, was toastmaster. The principal speakers were Fred Jones of Lowell, president of the state association, James T. Fineman of Boston and Representative Fred U. Lewis of Lowell. A ladies' orchestra played during the dinner and also afforded accompaniment for Frank McGarrin and Joseph Craven who played with songs.

William H. Noonan was chairman of the banquet committee. He was assisted by the association officers and the following members of the executive committee, President John Walsh, Secretary Fred Jones, Vice President Charles Brundish, Frank Planerty and Charles Deane.

Dance by Lowell's Own Sailors in Associate Hall Tomorrow Night

Lowell's own sailors will entertain at their dance in Associate hall Friday evening as only sailors can, in a really navy hop. Extensive plans have been made by the various committees in charge, and by their untiring efforts nothing has been left undone to make this party one of the outstanding features of the social season.

Omner Albart, chairman of the decorating committee, has a surprise in store for all who have never had the opportunity of seeing a "battle wagon" dressed up on a gala day.

Arrangements have been made for a special musical program, one that will be in keeping with the usual navy way of entertaining.

Harold J. O'Brien, chairman of the dance committee and one who has always tried to keep the navy well represented at all military and social functions in Lowell, states that all its guests in the present time its social undertakings have proven very successful. One of the greatest achievements was the Navy Day celebration last October. It is the intention of the club, as it is the intention of all similar clubs throughout the country, to make this an annual event and to give to the people of this city a real naval celebration on this day. Plans are also underway for extensive water sports and athletic events on the Merrimack river this coming summer.

The club's foremost service, however, will come on Memorial Day when the navy club will band together to honor departed shipmates.

As expected, the winter sport style show and ball at the Auditorium will be the main feature of the carnival and great interest is to be centered on the selection there of a carnival king and queen. More entries than ever are expected in the style show as the rules have been changed to permit young women not in high school yet garbed in winter sports costume, to enter. The committee is still open to suggestions from the public. Mr. Wood may be reached at his studio in the Fairbairn building or Mr. Doherty reached at the A. G. Pollard store.
